

Library celebrates Canada's birthday

Richmond Hill Public Library is celebrating Canada's birthday with a week of special activities, and the public is invited to join in.

Wednesday, June 27, Ms. Pamela Galsworthy, Public Relations Manager for Harlequin Books will be a guest at the library.

Her topic will be on the rapid growth and success of Harlequin Books and she will show how you can become an author of these well-read novels.

This program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

A special presentation of 'Who Has Seen the Wind', a movie adapted from William O. Mitchell's novel of the same name, will be featured June 28 at 8 p.m.

Canada's Birthday Party will be celebrated with a full day of activities at the library on Friday, June 29.

Events get underway at 9:30 a.m. and are expected to conclude at 2 p.m.

This program is for children aged eight to 12 and the registrations are limited to the first 60 children.

Pre-registration is required and you may do so in person or by calling the library at 884-9288.

Included in the day's activities will be a Kid's Olympics, singing, films, a share in the giant birthday cake and prizes.

SUMMER PLAYGROUNDS
There is still room in the summer playground programs sponsored by the Richmond Hill Parks and Recreation Department.

Programs will be held at community schools and will be divided into morning and afternoon sessions at the following schools: Charles Howitt, St. Joseph's, Walter Scott, MacKillop, Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox and Beverley Acres.

Morning sessions are for children aged four to seven and afternoons are for those aged eight to 12.

Full day programs will be held as follows: four to seven year olds at Ross Doan Public School and eight to 12 year olds at Roselawn Public School.

Registration fees are payable for the first day of the session, which is July 3. A half-day program will cost

$5 per child or $15 for a family. A full-day program will cost $10 or the same family rate.

For additional information, please call Anita Miller at 884-8101.

SENECA GRADUATES
Several Richmond Hill residents were among the recent graduates at Seneca College's King Campus.

They are: Ron Celsie, Animal Health Technician; Anne Saunders, Creative Advertising and Broadcasting; Warren Davey, Business Administration; Sharon Anderson, Miriam Kennedy, Marylou Sullivan and Wendy Weber — Early Childhood Education; Marie Barber, Recreation facilities management; Anna Hunter and Brenda Stephens, Visual Arts Instructor.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY
The Richmond Hill Horticultural Society is not resting for the summer months.

Members are busy arranging for the Delphinium, Rose and Lily show, which is scheduled for July 10 at 8 p.m. at the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church.

Later in the summer, there will be a summer flower show, combined with an ice-cream social; and in the fall, there will be an autumn flower show at Hillcrest Mall and an awards night.

BLOCK PARENTS
The Richmond Hill-Thornhill area Block Parents Association will hold its monthly meeting Thursday, July 5 at the York Regional Police Station on Major Mackenzie Drive beginning at 7:30 p.m.

This meeting is open to anyone in the community, who is interested in attending.

For additional information about the meeting of the Block Parents, please call 884-7360.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED
The York Central Association for the Mentally Retarded is looking for volunteers to help with summer programs for children.

Several programs will be held for these children throughout the summer months, and if you would like to help, please call Lyn Wardle at 884-9110 for additional information.

Richmond Hill South

Richvale Brownie is awarded Edith King Trophy

The Richvale Brownies and Guides wound up the season with a Brownie Flying up ceremony last week.

At the same time, two special awards were presented. The Edith King Award for the Brownie or Guide considered to be an all-round girl, was awarded to Brownie Sarah Woodrow.

A Guide All-round Cord was presented to Cindy Varley, for having earned a certain number of badges and passed part of the work towards the Canada Cord.

YELLOW BRICK HOUSE

There will be a support rally for the Yellow Brick House, a hostel for women and children in York Region, at the Richvale Community Centre June 28 (tomorrow) at 8 p.m.

Hostel workers spend time arranging legal aid, as well as giving moral support, accommodation and counselling to women in distress, who have nowhere else to turn. The community is invited to the rally, where project hostel will be explained in detail.

WRITERS CLUB

The Richvale Writers Club will meet next Thursday, July 5 from 8 to 11 p.m. at the home of Bernice Lever, 79 Denham Drive.

Anyone requiring additional information about the club, how it works, what the members do and more, is asked to call Mrs. Lever at 889-6703.

LIONS BINGO

The Richvale Lions invite everyone to attend their bingo nights every Sunday at the Lions Hall, 31 Spruce Avenue, Richvale.

Games begin at 7:30 p.m.

Softball is underway in Oak Ridges

The Oak Ridges Minor Softball Association still has openings for young people on several teams.

Coaches, willing to help with tee-ball, are needed. The children on this team are aged 4 to 6 and they play Thursdays at Oak Ridges Public School.

Boys and girls, who would like to find out what tee-ball is all about, are asked to bring mom and dad to see a game any Thursday.

The bantams need a coach. These are boys aged 14 to 17 and games are played in a variety of locations. Umpires are needed for the association. Anyone willing to undertake this job, will be trained by professionals before they begin their duties.

Anyone wishing to register their son or daughter for baseball may do so by calling

Jack Ward at 773-5916. He will be able to supply any other information required at the same time.

Registration fees are easy on the pocket book — $10 per player and $25 per family.

SCHOOL IS OUT

At 3:30 this afternoon, school is out for the summer, and children will be enjoying their freedom.

Block Parents will be more in demand than ever, and more Block Parents are needed.

If you would like more information about the association and what it entails, please call Astrid Perekoppi at 773-4276.

LIBRARY
Community libraries have a good selection of best sellers on their shelves for your summer reading enjoyment.

The Charles Connor Library in Oak Ridges also has a good selection of pocket novels for sale to take to the cottage with you, in case you're worried about borrowing books for this purpose.

A clay workshop for the children is scheduled for later in the summer.

Full details about this program will appear in this column later.

FAMILY 'Y'

The York Region Family 'Y' has a good selection of summer day camp programs for children, in case you're wondering how you will manage to amuse the youngsters.

There is still room in most of the programs. For additional information about rates and days and times, please call the 'Y' at 884-4811.

LAKE WILCOX
People have been flocking to Lake Wilcox to enjoy the water and the beach now that the weather has improved.

Parents are reminded that this is an UNSUPERVISED beach, and anyone swimming there does so at his own risk.

SUMMER PLAYGROUNDS

The Richmond Hill Parks and Recreation Department will be sponsoring summer playground programs at community schools from July 3 to August 10.

Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox Public Schools will both have the following programs.

From 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. will be set aside for children aged 4 to 7.

Included in this program will be a variety of crafts, sports and an occasional outing under supervision by counsellors.

The afternoon program from 1:30 to 3:30 will be for those aged eight to 12 and will follow a similar program only geared to the older children.

The fees for this series of programs is $5 per child or for families with several children, the family rate is $15.

Children may register July 3 at their community school or in advance at the town offices.

For additional information, please call 884-8101.

GOLF TOURNAMENT

The Viking Club Golf Tournament will be held Saturday in Scouffville.

Tickets are $25 per couple or $15 for one person, and this includes a dinner-dance in the evening at the Viking Club.

Tickets will be sold for the evening's entertainment only at a cost of $10 per couple.

You can purchase tickets at Rudy's Fish and Chip Store in the Oak Ridges Plaza.

Naran home recipe plan takes off ugly fat.

The Naran Plan can help you lose pounds of unsightly fat right in your own home. This home recipe weight-control plan is easy to follow and costs little. Go to your drug store and ask for the Naran Reducing Plan. The whole plan is included in every package. The directions are right on the label. Pour the liquid into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Take two tablespoonsful twice a day as needed. Take the vitamin supplement included and follow the low calorie weekly food menu. Your first purchase should show you a simple easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender more graceful curves; reducible pounds and inches of excess fat should disappear from neck, chin, arms, hips, abdomen, calves and ankles. If you are not completely satisfied with your first purchase just return the empty carton for your money back. Follow this easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan to help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears, how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.
