

Travelling Puppet Show in Maple July 6

wolf who poses as a fish salesman, and a tall boy with red hair who turns into a dog will soon be delighting four to ten year old children, when the Travelling Puppet Show appears Friday, July 6, at 10:15 a.m. at Maple library.

Now in its third year of touring, the Travelling Puppet Show, sponsored by the Central Ontario Regional Library System.

will present two puppet plays in most public libraries in the regions of Peel, York and Durham.

This year the troupe performs The Three Little Pigs, based on the famous children's story; and A Head for Peppino, which tells the story of what happens to a little puppet who is unhappy with the way he looks.

Three puppeteers, Cathy Dunn-Gilbert, Margaret Shorten and Reeka Veh, will perform the two shows at Maple Library.

The Three Little Pigs, adapted by David Jones, is a modern version of the traditional story in which abig bad wolf, tries his utmost to catch and eat three fat little pigs.

In this version, the wolf poses as a brush salesman and an old grandmother, and in these disguises almost succeeds in catching two of the tasty pigs. But the third pig, who has built a house of brick instead of hay and branches, manages to rescue his brothers and save them all from the wolf's fierce teeth. Eventually, the wolf resorts to coming down the chimney after his quarry but ends up in a pot full of boiling water.

A Head for Peppino by George Merten tells the story of a little puppet with a shock of bright red hair, an upturned nose and big bright eyes. An attractive little fellow, one would think, but alas Peppino is not happy with the way he looks and seeks the help of two puppet friends Blinkie and the Magician, to enable him to change his appearance.

Unfortunately, the magician who must perform the necessary spells is a little out of practice. He manages to turn Peppino into all sorts of things, but not into a better looking puppet. Eventually, after much worry and distress, Peppino decides that maybe he is happy just to be himself.

The Travelling Puppet Show was originally created by the Children's Services Committee of the Central Ontario Regional Library System, and is coordinated by Gloria Furtney from the library system's headquarters in Richmond Hill. There is no charge for the performance.

another Loblaws price breakthrough

$5.00 off Cadet cleaning

with Loblaws cleaning coupons and a $10. or more cleaning order you bring to Cadet.

Today through July 17, with every $10. or more Loblaws purchase and only 1¢ you will receive a $5. off Cadet cleaning coupon, redeemable at any Cadet store. This coupon entitles you to $5. off any $10. or more cleaning order you bring to Cadet (coupon may be applied to any item Cadet cleans). Loblaws $5. off Cadet cleaning coupon may be redeemed at Cadet cleaners through to Sept. 1, 1979.

Loblaws has found a way to cut your family's dry cleaning costs by up to 50%. We asked Cadet Cleaners (by far, the largest dry cleaner in the Metro area) how Loblaws and Cadet could work together to cut dry cleaning costs for Loblaws' customers. Cadet told us that the cleaning industry is seasonal, that volume increases in the spring, with summer wardrobes being prepared for wear and winter-wear prepared for storage. However, in summer, when many people are away on vacation, cleaning volume decreases dramatically, while Cadet's costs remain the same. Therein lies the opportunity. To help Cadet utilize their facilities to the fullest, Loblaws negotiated with Cadet to increase their summer volume by cutting the cost of your summer cleaning with this fantastic offer! Each Cadet coupon entitles you to $5.00 off a $10.00 or more Cadet cleaning order. Plus as an added bonus, Cadet is offering 50% off repairs and alterations, on any $10.00 total order. We're always looking for ways to reduce your costs - it's just another bonus for Loblaws' customers.
