

Dairy Queen ousted

The Richmond Hill Dairy Queen girls got off to a flying start in the Eringate softball tournament last week but lost their wings when they met up with Burlington. They opened with a 12-10 triumph over Brampton, whom Bramalea 17-0, and then fell 10-2 to Burlington.

Richmond Hill 12, Brampton 10. The Hillers had to overcome a stubborn Brampton team using three pitchers. The winner was Karen McInnis.

Big Hill hitters for this game were Debbie Cebello, Kathy Chepelsky, Pam MacInnis and Heather Moore, all with three-for-three at bat.

Dairy Queen 17, Bramalea 0. Kathy

Chepelsky pitched a big game in this time out striking out 13 batters. Burlington 10, Dairy Queen girls jumped into an early 2-0 lead with Patti O'Sullivan and Karen McInnis crossing the plate. They were able to hold the lead until a disastrous fourth inning which saw Burlington scoring six runs. Endsiville.

Ironically, league action saw the Dairy Queen girls come back to defeat the same Burlington team 7-2.

Kathy Chepelsky pitched an excellent game as well as hitting a home run. Kathy Lawlor also homered while Joey Stephenson and Janet Gerritse made some excellent plays in the field.

Thornhill nips King

The Thornhill Intermediate softball team edged King City Juniors 6-5 last week in a thriller which saw a KC rally fall one run short in the ninth inning.

King City, trailing 6-2 going into the inning, came out fighting on singles by Brian Sheardown and Dennis Griffith scoring Uerlander. Sheardown then came in on a sacrifice and Lee Fleury singled home Griffith.

Big innings for Thornhill came in the third and fourth innings as they scored three times each.

It was 2-0 for King City going into the bottom of the third inning when the Thornhill bats got going.

Dean Stewart walked and came home on Glen Bayce's triple. Jim Vetere then hit a home run bringing in Boyce.

Three more runners crossed the plate in the fourth inning as Wayne Henry and Dean Stewart walked and Boyce brought them home with a triple. Vetere then singled in Boyce.

King's first run came in the first inning when Karl Taylor singled, went to second on an error and scored on Sheardown's single. The second run came in the next inning when Ken Griffith singled as did Randy Spensley. Paul Armstrong then singled in Griffith.

Boyce was the winning pitcher allowing 16 hits, walking one and striking out two. Loser was Griffith who allowed only six hits, struck out five, and walked three.

King City went on to lose a 6-4 game to the Sisman Kings.

Don Schwartz homered for King City in the first inning on the first pitch.
