Anne Murray endorses 'Save Children' appeal

Thornhill's Anne Murray is asking Canadians to help her "save a child" during the International Year of the Child.

A black and white picture of the internationally renowned Canadian singing star is featured on the new "Save The Children"

Penny Appeal collecting capsules which are now appearing in stores, restaurants and other locations.

Miss Murray is Honorary Chairperson of "Save The Children" activities during the year.

She recently said that one of the "best joys" of being well-known was to be approached to serve the organization in this capacity.

"It's a great privilege for me to be able to help these kids," she said. "It gives me a feeling of great satisfaction to do so."

Volunteers wishing to support Miss Murray's appeal by placing and servicing the new capsules, are invited to contact their local "Save The Children" branch, or to write directly to the Canadian Save The Children Fund at 720 Spadina Avenue, Toronto.

Money collected from the capsules aids children in more than 30 countries, including Canada.
