IT'S HAPPENING IN THE HILL

Richmond Hill Central

Library housecleaning unearths treasures of every description

Richmond Hill Public Library staff has been doing a bit of house cleaning and the amount of stuff left behind by patrons is almost enough to stock a store.

The items are many and varied, and include marriage certificates, divorce papers, many other legal documents, documents of other sorts and the usual assortment of mitts, hats and much more.

If you are missing some of your important papers and recently made copies at the library, perhaps that's where they are.

Maureen Stevenson at the library will be pleased to help you locate your items if she has them in her collection.

NATURE CRAFTS
The Nature Crafts program, which was scheduled for July 6 has been changed to August 16.

The workshop, designed for parents, playground leaders, camp counsellors and anyone else who works with children, will give instruction and demonstrations for making articles of natural materials.

The fee for the workshop is $5 and this will cover the cost of materials. Registrations will be accepted in the boys and girls department of the library or by calling 884-9288.

FILM FESTIVAL
The Richmond Hill Public Library will hold a children's film festival for children of all ages on Wednesday, July 25 from 2 to 4 p.m. The films shown will appeal to all ages and everyone is welcome.

The Travelling Puppet Show is coming to Richmond Hill on Wednesday, August 1 and will be at the library at 2 p.m.

Feature attractions will be 'The Three Little Pigs' and 'A Head for Peppino'. This program will appeal to most children, and it is free for as many children as care to attend.

MILL POND CONCERT
Tomorrow, July 19 at 7:30 p.m. there will be a concert at Mill Pond Park.

There is no admission to see the concert.

This week's entertainment will be by Jim Galloway and the Metro Stompers.

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE
St. John Ambulance Brigades will hold a training session Wednesday, July 25 from 8 to 10 p.m. in the cafeteria at Don Head School.

Anyone, interested in learning more about the brigade, is welcome to attend.

For additional information, please call 884-4204.

Richmond Hill South

Mobile Citizenship Court in Richvale

There will be a mobile citizenship court at the Richvale Community Centre Thursday, July 26 from 2 to 8 p.m.

Information about how to apply for citizenship and much more will be available at this time.

For additional information, please call 883-2234.

UNITED CHURCH
Richvale United Church will be closed for the months of July and August. Everyone is invited to join with the congregation of Maple United for services.

LIBRARY
Richvale Public Library will be host to the Travelling Puppet Show on August 1 at 10:30 a.m.

Two puppet plays will be performed and children of all ages will enjoy the show.

BLOCK PARENTS
The Richmond Hill and area Block Parents Association will hold its second annual picnic at Bruce's Mills Conservation Area July 22 (Sunday) from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

All Block Parents and their families are welcome to attend the picnic for a day of fun and games.

Kushal Khana, centre, of Elka Dr. Maresky, right, who has been in business in Richmond Hill for 20 years, and Sol Levstein, who works in the shop and arranged contest prizes.

Richmond Hill North

Block Parents annual picnic at Bruce's Mill Sunday

The Richmond Hill and area Block Parents Association will hold its second annual picnic at Bruce's Mills Conservation Area July 22 (Sunday) from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

All Block Parents and their families are welcome to attend the picnic for a day of fun and games.

Hot dogs and drinks will be provided, but everyone is asked to bring a picnic lunch.

The Block Parents are more in need now that the schools are closed for the summer.

If your Block Parent sign is worn out and faded, the association will replace it with a new one, but you must turn in the old one.

Check with your area captain.

NURSERY SCHOOL
Many Oak Ridges children have attended the King City Co-operative Nursery School.

Registrations are still being taken for the new term which begins in September.

Children must be two and one-half years of age and must not yet attend kindergarten to be accepted.

For additional information about the nursery school, its program, or to register your child, please call 773-4254.

LIBRARY
Summer vacation time is a great time for lazy days of reading, and The Charles Connor Library in Oak Ridges can supply all your needs.

For those, who are afraid of losing a borrowed book, there is a good selection of pocket books for sale. The subject range is varied and there is something for everyone.

For those, who want deeper reading material or want to continue in a particular series, the library staff will arrange for a longer borrowing period, if you choose.

YOUR NEWS
This column is for all community organizations to get their activities to the people.

If you or your organization are planning something exciting for the summer months, please call 773-4424 during the evening, and share your news with the rest of the community.

Applications for Operators of Automobile Damage Appraisal Centres Invited

Insurance Bureau of Canada is expanding its system of Drive-In Appraisal Centres. Centres now operating in Ontario, Alberta and the Maritimes indicate that competent operators can achieve an equitable profit while providing greater convenience and economies to the driving public. IBC now intends to expand the Drive-In Appraisal Centre program in the York Region.

All Drive-In Appraisal Centres approved by Insurance Bureau of Canada will be owned by qualified individuals or organizations, operated in accordance with IBC standards and procedures and subject to supervision and inspection by IBC.

Applicants should have a business background, preferably in the field of automotive repair or vehicle damage appraisal. They should have a good record of ability to serve the public. Ideally, they should also have a knowledge of the insurance industry.

Requests for formal application documents should be sent by registered mail, or delivered in person to Mr. John Le Page, Director — Appraisal Centres, Insurance Bureau of Canada, 181 University Avenue, 13th floor, Toronto, Ontario M5H 3M7. A certified cheque of $100 is required which will be refunded when all materials are returned.

Final application documents will be considered on September 10, 1979.
