WE CAN HELP.
Our relocation service provides the know-how to make you an expert job-finder. We show you how to locate, influence and get good job offers from employers.

We can provide everything you need - quality printed resumes, letters, confidential telephone answering, mailing addresses, vocational testing and assessment, training in interviewing and research advice.

If your next career move demands a fully professional effort on your part call and inquire how we can help.

This service is not for everyone - we are not an employment agency and we cannot help people who are unwilling to make a 100% effort to get a job, or a better job. The system works if you do.

Counsellors are available in most communities served by this newspaper and would be happy to discuss your situation in confidence and without obligation.
