

York Regional Police News

Three Woodbridge men have been arrested and charged with mischief to private property as a result of numerous incidents that occurred on the July 1 weekend.

Several cars and trucks in the Woodbridge area were damaged, when bricks were thrown through windows or at the vehicles, and the one vehicle in Downsview suffered the same fate.

The three men will appear in court July 30.

ALONG NAIL

Levesque Used Cars in Thornhill has a few cars to repair, actually 31 in all.

On July 7 the 31 vehicles were scratched as they were parked in the lot.

Damages to the vehicles amount to $5,500.

CAMPING OUT

Someone is all set for camping. Patricia Crum of Laureleaf Road, Thornhill, is missing a sleeping bag, four tent poles and some other equipment.

It was taken from a tent in her backyard.

GIDDY UP

A leather western saddle and a bridle were taken from the property of Carla Lye, R.R. 2 Gormley.

The missing items are valued at $400.

SCHOOL DAYS

Two schools in Markham suffered damage to windows from July 10 to 11.

James Robinson Public School and St. Patrick's School both had windows smashed by unknown persons.

WELL PLACED BITE

A Richmond Hill man has been charged with harboring a vicious dog. His dog attacked and bit, not just anyone, but a York Regional Police Constable.

SNIP SNIP

Someone took a lawn mower and a whipper snipper from the Auberge Maple Inn on Major Mackenzie Drive, Maple.

The items are valued at $210.

OPEN DOORS

Mill Heights Homes Limited on Easy Street, Richmond Hill is missing some doors... 10 cedar doors and two sliding glass doors.

Several houses in the new subdivision in Richmond Hill were entered on July 14 and the doors were taken.

They are valued at $3,000.
