McB leads Dynes to 7-5 win

A shaky ninth inning deprived Richmond Hill Dynes Jewellers hurler Blair McBratney of a shutout Thursday night of last week in a Beaches Major Fast-ball League game at the Town Park.
It was still an impressive performance by young McBratney as the Jewellers unlimbered their sticks enroute to a 7-3 triumph over Fred's Sports.

McBratney breezed into that ninth inning with a 7-0 lead to go along with a six-hit and 13 strikeout performance when the visitors attempted to catch fire. He got out of it with a total of three runs, nine hits, and 14 strikeouts.
McBratney started his own woes when he hit lead-off batter Keith Warling. Additional problems came when third baseman Ben Bourget dropped Bob McLellan's towering pop fly just in front of home plate.
McBratney got Frank Trauzzi on a pop to short but Jim Macey grounded a sharp single through the infield to score Warling from second base with McLellan going to third.

John Heather then doubled home both runners.
John Bogdanis lined to McBratney for the second out but Steve Gass beat out an infield hit. Fred's manager Tony Andrus then struck out to end the game.

NO TROUBLE
The Jewellers appeared to be in little trouble most of the way thanks to McBratney.

They opened the scoring in the first inning as Paul Philip led off with a single, went to second on a sacrifice, stole third, and then romped home on a wild pitch by loser Rick McKenzie.
They made it 2-0 in the third inning as McBratney led off with a single, went to second on an infield out and scored on Steve Madden's single.
Run number three came in the fourth inning as Phil Wood walked. Catcher Chris DeGeer was out on an interference play at first base but Doug Lewis doubled to right scoring Wood.

The Jewellers got another run in the fifth on a single by Bourget. Bourget went to second on an error, third on an out and scored on another error.

3 IN 9TH
Richmond Hill wrapped the game up in the bottom of the eighth as Hal DeGeer was safe on an error and came home on Wood's triple. DeGeer then beat out an infield hit.

Both runners scored as Fred's centerfielder dropped Kevin Mathews' long drive to that field.
The Jewellers managed eight hits in the game with centerfielder Lewis getting a double and a single.

A previous game saw the Jewellers lose 2-1 in a 10 inning contest in Bradford Tuesday night of last week.

Bell Canada trims Hair Works by 5 runs

Hair Works was left with its ears ringing after taking a 7-2 loss at the hands of Bell Canada in a Mosquito House League game in the Richmond Hill Soccer Club last week.

The game was decided early when Omar Grant scored three of his four goals and was then backed up by goals from Guy Piirto, Fat Kelly and Gus Karvaniaivous. Peter McDonnell also played a strong game.

Tim Lavoie got the goals for Hairworks.

In the second of three games which ended in 7-2 scores, Bone Fencing came out the victors over Ronald's Printing. A pair of goals were booted by each of Kevin Jennings, Sean Jennings and Marcel Bernard. Jimmy Henderson added a single.

Fuddles coming on

The Richmond Hill Fuddle Duddle Midget Boys Ball Club has had a rough season to date.

Fielding errors cost the team their first game, as Northminster United scored seven unearned runs to beat the Fuddle Duddles 11-1. In their home opener at Crosby Park, the Richmond Hill boys played much better ball, and rallied behind the relief pitching of Dale Moreland to defeat Glenfield 7-6. The team lost to Pickering 12-11 in their next game, and have yet to pull out of their slump. Their record to date stands at one win, two ties, and 10 losses.

The team has the potential to win more games and play better ball if they can get their hitting and good defensive ball together. They play Monday nights at Crosby Park at 8:30.

Smith paces Boyle's

Boyle's Shell romped to a 28-12 win over Alex Brockton Construction in the Bantam division of Oak Ridges Minor Ball last week.

The Richmond Hill Dairy Queen Squirts had little trouble with Sisman's of Canada, overpowering them 11-2. The game was played at Oak Ridges Public School.

In a game re-scheduled from July 2, Sisman's took on Stereo Factory and came out on the short end again, 10-6, the game was closer than the score indicates.

Last Thursday, Jen-All clashed with Linear Sound in a Peeeweew division game. It was all tied up until the final inning, when the Richvale team came alive with three runs to take the game 20-17.

Fifteen-year-old Steve Schorsch, a Grade 9 Bayview Secondary student, has qualified in the Canadian National Pre-Junior Wrestling Championships.

He wrestled in the midweight class for 14-16-year-olds in St. Catharines last week and put on an impressive performance, considering he is only a first-year competitor.

He recently developed an interest in the sport in school this year and began coming out regularly to the Wrestling Club. With his success last week, he'll be going to San Diego for the World School Boys Championships, which take place August 5-8.

Coach Larry Johnson, a phys. ed. teacher at Bayview said Steve has shown a lot of potential. "He came fourth in the Canadian Juvenile Championship at Montreal last March and that's when he had just gotten into wrestling," he said.
Bayview Secondary has a tradition of producing top-notch wrestlers. Brad McKenzie, 17, a Grade 11 student weighing only 97 pounds, captured the Canadian Juvenile Championship in the same meet where his teammate was making a debut.
Another boy, who has already graduated from Bayview, is the Canadian Juvenile Judo Champ and recently participated in the Pan American Games at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Galaxy trying for 4th place

By BRICK WHITE
Galaxy Tavern has its sights set on fourth place in the York Slow Pitch League.
Markham Red Rose, Woodbridge Hotel and Pine Valley Auto will fight it out for the first three spots.
If Galaxy can put a few wins together, it can grab that fourth position and play in the championship round of the playoffs.
With wins over Maple Blue Jays and Markham

Red Rose this week by identical 15-2 scores the team could be on the way.
The big bats against Maple were Dan Ransom with a grand slam, Steve Martin with a three-run homer and Paul Mills hitting five for five.
At Markham the bats were still working with Jeff Watson, Errol Hook, and Rick Mills homering and showing the way. However, the strong point of the game was without doubt, defense.
