Refining back on stream

In Richmond Hill minor T-ball play, OHEU edged Town Auto Body 33-29 last week.

Fred Law and Jonathan Pyke each homered twice and Joey Sadaro had a solo shot for the winners. Jamie Kobayashi and Cassie Campbell played well for the losers.

Baymar also got some good hitting from David runs to their opponents' three.

Dairy Queen Onion Rings bombed Rice's Flowers 20-11. Krain, with two homers and a triple, and Jason Hill, who had two home run drives.

Rumble Transport had little trouble rolling over Keith Hood Real Estate 40-23. Robbie Wilson led the way with a grand slam. Kim Poole and Angie Leonard worked hard with the rest of the Rumble team for a good all-around performance.

In Junior Tyke action, Kinnear Pontiac, coached by Bob Davies, ran away with their game against Block Parents, scoring 16

Powell Fencing edged Powell Plumbing 16-14. In that game, Kim Gates pitched well and Sean Sullivan made a nice double play for the winners.

The Dairy Queen Burgers of the Intermediate Girls walked over Stop 'N Shop 40-9. Home runs by Christine Foch and Ann Marie Lannen contributed to the lopsided score.

The Record Shop trounced T-Shirt Shoppe 23-9. Suzanne Filkus, Ann Marie MacKKay and Darlene Whitmarsh hit three-for-three.

Elgin Mills Dodge won their match against Dynes Jewellers 16-3 in Pee wee action. Gary Brown and Mark Burton hit three-for-three for the winners.

Galaxy grabs first

By FRANK BAILIE
The calibre of Ladies Recreational Ball has vastly improved in the league this year, as indicated by the numerous close games. All the teams are well-balanced and have showed steady improvement on defense.

Superior Propane and Charmglow played their full seven innings to a 19-19 draw last week. In Superior's half of the first, eight runs were put across the plate.

They got three more in the second, which put them out in front by 11. But Charmglow was not to be denied and rallied for 11 of their own runs in the second inning.

Afterwards, the game levelled out and was a see-saw battle to the end. Susan Renshaw was four-for-five and both Leslie Rainey and Donna Hill were three-for-four for Charmglow.

For Superior, Joan Sullivan, Lyn Hewitt, Donna Brownley and Denise Gault were all four-for-four. Linda Hawkins got things off with a bang by blasting a grand slam in the first inning.

Best Way Stone had little trouble sweeping up over Sussex Carpeting, 12-7. A total of 76 batters came to the plate for both teams, in seven innings.

The big gun for Best Way was Vicky Hill, with three runs on four hits in five times at bat. One of those hits was a long triple which nearly turned into a homer. Bev MacDonald had three hits and Tracy Francis smacked out a home run.

In Tuesday's half of the schedule, Smitty's Brake Stop was ground to a halt 19-14 by Twin Hills Ceramics, for its first loss of the season.

Twin Hills led 10-4 after only two innings. Smitty's put 10 runs on the sheet in the third and fourth but a six-run fifth was enough to give Twin Hills the win. It shut Smitty's out in the last three frames.

Twin Hills ended up with 21 hits, three walks and no errors. Smitty's had 20 hits, four walks and made two errors.

Galaxy Restaurant pounded Rice's Aluminum 24-13. Shirley McVean hit consistently, going four-for-four. Cathy Ott came up with three-for-four and Pat Armstrong had four hits on five times at bat.

Rice's played a strong infield game. Cindy Rice once again came up with her unassisted double plays at second. Sue Barnett had three hits as did Laura Leece, Sue Powell and Cindy Rice.

Four rained-out games from last week will be played tomorrow (Thursday) July 26.
