

Hill Squirts lose finals

The Richmond Hill Dairy Queen Squirts travelled to Belleville last Saturday and reached the "A" Finals before being thoroughly trounced by a strong Glenfield team. Due to several teams not showing up, Richmond Hill played their first game against Garson and demolished them 19-3 in only six innings.

The Hill started slowly in this game, but 10 runs in the sixth inning ended the game on the mercy rule.

Scott Low swung the big bat with four hits including two homers. Jim Hughes, Cesidio Negri, Robby Chepelsky, and Joe Apps all chipped in with two hits. Chepelsky started the game, but he had to be relieved in the first inning by Apps, who went the rest of the way allowing only one hit.

EXTRA INNINGS
The next game saw the Dairy Queen boys simply going through the motions, before they finally downed Cobourg 3-2 in nine innings.

The Hill bats were silent in this contest with the exception of the third and ninth innings, in which they got three hits both times.

In the end though, it was Joe Apps scooting home on a passed ball to win the game. Robbie Bell hurtled the entire game and surrendered only four hits while fanning 17.

GLENFIELD HOT
The "A" Championship game saw the Hillers come up against a red-hot Glenfield team and were smacked 9-0.

The Hillers could not get an offense mounted, as Jim Hughes and Dave Repath were the only ones to get a hit, as they both singled.

Glenfield on the other hand came out swinging and pounded pitcher Bell for 12 hits in six innings. Apps threw a hitless seventh inning. Paul McWatt played well in centrefield.

Smitty's first

Smitty's Brake Stop team climbed past Galaxy and Best Way Stone last week to once again take over first place in the Richmond Hill Ladies Recreational Softball League.

The first game saw Smitty's upending Sussex Carpeting, 14-9. Sheila Shier led Smitty's to the win going three for three at bat including a home run.

Jane Thromonhauser scored two runs on four hits in four tries. Sussex came up with 19 hits (the same as Smitty's) but couldn't get the runners around the bases. Jordy Mitchell and Carol Blackwood each had three hits in four trips but Carol was the only one to score.

Then it was Rice's Aluminum winning their second game of the season by scorching Charmglo Barbecues 20-14.

Pam Cooke and Sue Barnett for Rice's each scored three runs on three hits in four trips. Lyn Patterson also scored three but had an extra trip to the plate. Linda Hall had four hits in five times at bat and scored twice.

For Charmglo, Sue Renshaw had three hits in four times at bat. Sheila Jupp, Leslie Rainey and Sandy Caroline were two for four.

Other action saw Galaxy go down to its third loss of the season losing 13-12 to Sussex Carpeting.

The game turned out to be a walk-a-thon with Sussex giving up nine walks to Galaxy's 7. Lesley Henderson scored three runs for Sussex on two hits and two walks.

Peggy Swindlehurst and Carol Blackwood also scored twice on two hits and one walk. Barb Poole had four for four. Laurel Todd, one for four. Henderson and Laurel Todd each homered.

Kinnear Leasing takes tournament

The Richmond Hill Kinnear Leasing team breezed to the championship at the Bradford tournament on the weekend winning five straight games.

They opened with a 2-1 win over Pop Shoppe and then went on to defeat Oakwood Hotel 5-0, Pizza Press 10-0, Aurora Car Care 4-2 and Malton Merchants 2-1 in the final game.

Dave Webster tossed the final game allowing only three hits. The other four games were handled by Dave Berseth who pitched brilliantly all the way coming up with two shutouts including a no-hitter against Pizza Press. In 25 innings he only gave up three runs on seven hits.

That final game saw Kinnear opening the scoring in the third inning as Gord Woolnough scored on a single by Wayne Ellison.

Malton tied the game via a homer in the third. Richmond Hill scored the winning run in the eighth inning as Steve Wood singled and scored on Berseth's double.

Woolnough had a hot series hitting .650. The team is managed by George Clark.

Beat Malton 6-3

The Richmond Hill Intermediate Ladies downed Malton 6-3 last week in regular league softball play.

Kelly MacInnis and Giselle Marchand combined their efforts for the win. Janet Buxton tripled and scored on Bonnie Bryan's single to give Richmond Hill an early lead.

The fifth inning saw Katie McNamara tripling and scoring on Giselle Marchand's home run. Laurie Lansing then singled and scored on Bryan's double.

Richmond Hill plays host to Constitution Indians tonight (Wednesday) at the Town Park at 8:30 p.m.

King City Raiders keep on rolling

The King City Raiders kept right on rolling last week fashioning 3-1 and 9-5 wins over Schomberg and Pottageville respectively.

Winning pitcher Jim Schwartz and reliever Bruce Diplock combined for 11 strikeouts against Schomberg, walking one and striking out eight.

Big blow in this game came in the third inning when Jim Schwartz singled and romped home on Brian Sheardown's homer. Sheardown also started things for the first run in the second inning when he singled and came home on Randy Spensley's single.

The Pottageville game saw The Raiders jump into a 2-0 first inning lead and keep on rolling after that. They scored two more in the second, one in the fifth and a big four in the seventh.

This inning saw Schwartz singling and then coming home on one by Dennis Griffith. Randy Spensley then doubled bringing in Griffith. Don Munroe walked and Karl Taylor followed with a double to bring in Spensley. Munroe then stole home.

Mike Unterlander tossed the win for King City with relief from Schwartz. They combined for 16 hits, two walks and four strikeouts.
