

Oak Ridges girl top junior cadet

An Oak Ridges girl, Kelly Ann Woodruff, has been elected best junior cadet from a contingent of 2,300 youngsters.

Kelly Ann is 13 and a cadet with the Queen's York Rangers in Aurora.

She went to Camp Ipperwash for a two-week period in July, and while there, received the honor.

Her certificate was presented by Lieutenant Colonel Knox of Ottawa.

Achievements are flowing into the Woodruff family this summer.

Kelly Ann's brother, Larry is a senior cadet, also at Camp Ipperwash, and he, too, has been singled out for recognition.

Shortly after Kelly Ann's award was presented, Larry phoned home to announce his promotion to Sergeant.

Both Woodruff children hope to use summer cadet camp experience to further their goals of Military College and after that, careers as officers in the Canadian Armed Forces.
