Two more for Raiders

on the scoresheet until the seventh inning against Tony Patzalek but it was enough to decide the issue.

Griffith brought him home on an error.

It was a romp all the way for Raider's pitcher Paul Armstrong against Kleinburg as his teammates made it easy with a 16-hit barrage highlighted by four-run innings in the first and eighth.

Armstrong gave up only four hits, struck out nine and walked two. That first inning saw Paul Armstrong walking and consecutive singles by Mike Unterlander and Brian Sheardown. Then came an error scoring Armstrong. Schwartz then singled scoring Unterlander and Sheardown. Don Munroe singled in Schwartz.

They made it 6-0 in the second on an error and Armstrong's homer. Then came two more in the fifth inning, one in the seventh and four big ones in the eighth.

Palgrave got on the scoreboard early against the Raiders scoring their only run in the first inning on a single and an error.

King City's pitcher Jim Schwartz shut the door on them after that allowing six hits, walking one and striking out 10.
