500 callers seek Joe's patio tables

The July 25 issue of The Liberal carried an article entitled, "What do you do with 1,000 patio tables?" I was somewhat hesitant about agreeing to your reporter's (Shaaron Hay) request for this article because it chronicled a bind that I had managed to get into in my efforts to help a workshop for the mentally retarded people of Rosetown, Saskatchewan. Ms. Hay convinced me that such an article might turn up a buyer who could take these off my hands. To be honest, I'm still waiting for that "big" buyer, but the response from the average subscriber of your paper has been overwhelming.

There have been somewhere in the vicinity of 500 calls from individuals for one or more tables for their patios, balconies, trailers or whatever.

Most of these people have been motivated by a desire to help these less fortunate Canadians.

I suppose I could say that although The Liberal may not be read on Bay Street, it certainly is read in the homes of the community.

I have been most heartened at the response of these persons to help, while at the same time acquiring a most practical product for a very reasonable cost.

I wish to thank Ms. Hay and The Liberal for the article, the management (Mr. D. House) at Hillcrest Mall, and all the individual citizens, particularly subscribers to the Thornhill and Richmond Hill editions of your paper.

You have confirmed my faith in individuals and humanity in general while giving a boost to the people of the town of Rosetown.

On behalf of the citizens of Rosetown, thank you one and all.

People who care won't be degraded

I wonder how many "organic gardeners" are running around.

In reference to Mr. Britton's article, I imagine just as many as there are "heedless

Hospital is praised

I would be failing in my duty were I not to express my sincere thanks to all those connected, in one way or another, with the York Central Hospital — particularly to those of the third floor.

When my doctor informed me that the best thing for me was hospitalization, it was like sentencing me to death — but, oh, what a pleasant and I am tempted to say, lovely experience.

"Hospital" has a completely different connotation to me. Again, my sincere thanks.

People who care for refugees or anyone else for that matter will not be degraded.

There are just differing opinions as to the meaning of the word "compassion".
