

Hill minor ball finals Saturday

Playoff action got underway last week in the Richmond Hill Minor Ball House Leagues with the following results:
 T-Ball play saw five teams squaring off with the top three teams reaching the finals next Saturday at the Town Park in accordance with the total number of runs scored.
 Baymar Sports led the qualifying pack with 78 runs followed by Rumble Transport with 72, H.E.U. with 63 and Water Refining with 62. Left out in the cold are Keith Hood Real Estate and Town Auto Body with 55 and 53 runs respectively.

 It was a similar set-up in the Junior Tykes' division. These teams consist of a combination of boys, Tyke-age and girls of Junior Age.
 Qualifying for the finals next week were Kinnear Pontiac with 39 runs, Powell Plumbing 34, Rice's Flowers 28 and Powell Fencing 23. Eliminated were Block

Parents and D.Q. Onion Rings.
SQUIRTS
 First place R.F. Mote received a bye in the initial playoffs with second place D.Q. Parfait defeating Cadillac Baif.
 Third-place Carcone's Esso won a 32-4 match against Richvale No. 2. The win matched them with Loughlin Home Supply and saw them losing 16-12.
 Highlight for the winning Loughlin team was Ed Kamerman's grandslammer. Loughlin had previously defeated Guaranty Trust 13-10.

 Other action saw Stereo Factory downing Sisman's 5-2 with the win making them eligible to play R.F. Mote. This game was won by Stereo 11-6.
 This week finds D.Q. Parfait playing Stereo Factory with the winners going against Loughlin in the finals next Saturday at the Town Park.

Lions oust Thornhill

The Richmond Hill Lion Peewees downed Thornhill 15-3 last week eliminating them from further play.
 Richmond Hill had won the first game 10-4 and lost the second one 10-2 setting up a do-or-die situation.
 Thornhill opened the scoring in that final game in the second inning but Richmond Hill came back strong with six runs on singles by Glen Dimpfel and Chris Kostopoulos.
 Wayne Murphy was then safe on a fielder's choice, Steve Ceballo walked, and Kevin Ryan singled scoring Kostopoulos.
 Glen Harding then walked scoring Murphy and Jim Anderson singled scoring Ceballo and Ryan. Kevin McInnis then doubled scoring Harding and Anderson.
 Thornhill added one run in the third inning but Richmond Hill came right back with three more when Kostopoulos singled, Murphy singled, Ceballo walked, and Bert Ball walked scoring Kostopoulos.

 Anderson then doubled scoring Murphy and Ceballo.
 The bottom of the fourth inning saw Richmond Hill chalking up two more runs when Kostopoulos singled, Murphy doubled and Ceballo singled scoring Kostopoulos. Ceballo was nipped on an attempted steal but Murphy scored on the play.
 In the bottom of the fifth inning it was Kevin MacInnis singling to score Ryan who had previously singled. Bert Ball tripled in the sixth inning scoring Murphy and Ceballo who were on with singles. Ball scored on a fly ball by Ryan to complete the scoring.

 Kevin McInnis went all the way on the mound for Richmond Hill.
 The Lions are waiting to see who they will meet in the finals as Malton and Bramalea are still battling it out.
 In the OASA playdowns, Richmond Hill was eliminated in two straight games by Malton. They lost each game by only one run.

Bantam girls series with Brampton tied

The Richmond Hill Dairy Queen Bantam girls split the first two games of the league playoffs with Brampton winning the first one 11-2 and losing the second one 4-3.
 Brampton was plagued with pitching problems in the first game with Richmond Hill scoring four runs on no hits in the first inning.
 Hill pitcher Kathy Chepelsky allowed only two hits while striking out seven. Belting out timely hits were Terry Olczak, Cathy Lawlor and Karen McInnis.

 The return match was marked with errors on both sides as the Hill managed only seven scattered hits mainly by Joey Stephenson, Cathy Lawlor and Terry Olczak.
 Pitcher Chepelsky allowed only four hits while striking out nine and walking one.

Whitby Psychiatric Hospital.

Living proof that our attitude toward mental illness has never been healthier.

Back in 1919 when Whitby Psychiatric Hospital first opened its doors, no one could have dreamed of the advances to be made in mental health care. As it celebrates 60 years of service, this respected facility is a tribute to these advances and to the healthier attitude toward mental illness.

Fortunately much of the fear of the unknown has disappeared. Gone are the days when the mentally ill patient was simply "put away." Out of sight. Out of mind.

Modern methods have introduced a new dimension to the delivery of mental health services. At the same time, we have come to recognize mental illness for what is - an illness to be treated like any other.

What better proof of this than the fact that 75% of the patients in Ontario's psychiatric hospitals, such as Whitby, are there voluntarily.

This attitude, which is reflected in Ontario's Mental Health Act, along with the impressive advances in treatment are clear indications of the tremendous progress toward better control and alleviation of mental illness.
