

IT'S HAPPENING IN THE HILL

Richmond Hill Central

Youth Concert Band is looking for new members

CONCERT BAND

Richmond Hill has a youth concert band and it is looking for new members.

You qualify to join the band if you have had two years of playing experience and enjoy playing an instrument.

The Richmond Hill Youth Concert Band meets each Thursday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. to rehearse at St. Joseph's School and new members are welcome.

For more information about the band or to find out if you qualify to join, please call 884-8873.

ROUND UP DAY

St. John's Baptist Church at 75 Oxford Street, Richmond Hill is holding a Round-Up day for all children in the community on Saturday, September 8, from 2 to 5 p.m.

There will be a variety of games and activities for children of all ages and your child is welcome.

To arrange for transportation, please call 884-8038.

Church School for the fall and winter season will resume Sunday, September 9 at 9:45 a.m. Transportation is available for the Church School and to arrange to have your children picked up, please call 884-8038 or 884-1620.

UNITED CHURCH

Richmond Hill United Church has much to offer people of all ages.

The United Church Women will resume activities tonight (September 5) at 8 p.m. in the Church parlor.

This week's feature will be a travelogue by Mildred Hucks on a trip to Alaska. Additional information is available on the UCW and on this evening's feature by calling 884-3443.

Yoga classes are being held at the United Church under the direction of Howard Halpern.

Classes on Tuesdays are in the evening with beginners meeting from 7:15 to 8:30 and the intermediates from 8:30 to 9:45.

On Thursdays the classes are in the mornings. Beginners meet from 9 to 10:15 and the intermediates from 10:15 to 11:30.

Additional information about these classes is available by calling 884-2671.

CHOIR

York Philharmonic Choir needs your help. Are you a tenor or a bass, and do you like to sing?

If you would like to learn more about how you can fit in, please call 884-4032 for additional information.

The choir will resume regular practice sessions Monday evenings at 7:30 at Richmond Hill Baptist Church.

ART IN THE PARK

The Mill Pond Park will become a world of artists of every kind this Sunday (September 9) as Art in the Park is featured.

The Town of Richmond Hill sponsors this opportunity for the Richmond Hill Group of Artists and guest artists to display their talents.

Art in the Park will be held from noon to dusk and everyone is invited to drop by and see the exhibits.

SKATING CLUB

Richmond Hill Figure Skating Club will hold registrations for the new season in the banquet room at the new arena on Saturday, September 15 from 1 to 5 p.m.

MINOR HOCKEY

Registrations for Richmond Hill Minor Hockey will be held at the arena on three days: Saturday, September 8 from 2 to 8 p.m.; Sunday, September 9 from 1 to 5 p.m. and Tuesday, September 11 from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

The skate and equipment resale centre will be open at the same times for those who wish to use it.

BLOCK PARENTS

The Richmond Hill Area Block Parents will hold a general meeting Thursday, September 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the York Regional Police Station on Major Mackenzie Drive, Richmond Hill.

All Block Parents are invited to attend.

Registration time is here

The beginning of September is already here and the time to register for various organizations comes with it.

If your organization is resuming activities within the next few weeks and you would like people in the community to be aware of them, please give our community news writer a call.

She is Millie Stewart and can be reached at 884-8177 or 773-4424.

Richmond Hill South

McCall's fashion shows at Hillcrest

Fashion shows appeal to people of all ages, especially women.

When the fashions are some created by yourself, that makes it more fun. Hillcrest Mall will abound with fashions featuring McCall's Fashions and sponsored by Lizannes Fabric Stores.

The show will be held in the Centre Court, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week (September 5, 6, and 7) and everyone is welcome to stay a while and watch.

The Hillcrest All-Stars will entertain shoppers in the Market Court at the Mall from 5:30 to 8 p.m.

If you're taking a break for some refreshments, the music might keep you tapping your toes and humming along.

WRITERS

The Richvale Writers Club is resuming activities. The next meeting will be Thursday, September 6 from 8 to 11 p.m. at the home of Bernice Lever, 79 Denham Drive, Richvale.

Everyone interested in writing for fun or as a career is invited to attend.

For additional information, please call Mrs. Lever at 889-6703.

GUIDES AND BROWNIES

The Richvale Guides and Brownies will hold registrations at the Richvale Community Centre on Friday, September 7, from 6:45 to 9 p.m.

This year, there are three groups in the Guiding organization in Richvale.

New age limits for the various groups are as follows: Brownies are aged six to nine, Guides are aged nine to 12 and a new group called Pathfinders are aged 12 to 15.

Anyone requiring additional information, may call Maureen Cross at 883-1861.

LEADERS NEEDED

Do you like to work with girls? If you do, you might be able to lend the Brownies or Guides a hand.

You don't have to have previous experience. All that's required is a willingness to help the girls.

For information about how you can be useful to the Guiding organization, please call Mrs. Cross at the above number.

94 HALL STREET RICHMOND HILL 883-4816

Richmond Hill North CFGM plays Country Music Stars in game of Donkey baseball

Oak Ridges Minor Ball Association is winding the season up in grand style with something for everyone.

Saturday, September 15 beginning at noon, Ozark Park and Bond Lake Arena will be buzzing with activities. A tyke baseball game will be played at noon, to get things started.

At 2 p.m. CFGM radio station will take on some Country Music singers in a game of Donkey Baseball.

This is a game of baseball played on the backs of donkeys. It can be a laugh a minute, especially if the donkeys behave in a normal manner and refuse to budge.

There will be a variety of games of chance geared to each and every member of the family.

Hot food will be served outside, and will include fresh-picked corn from Mitchell's Farm and either hot dogs or hamburgers.

Upstairs in the Lions' Den, there will be refreshments for the adults. The LLBO has issued a licence for this refreshment booth.

All proceeds will be used to further minor ball activities in the community.

Everyone is urged to come on out for an afternoon of fun and excitement.

NURSERY SCHOOL
King City Co-Op Nursery School is still taking registrations for the new season. If you have a little one aged two-and-a-half to five and are still seeking a nursery school, please call 773-4254 for information.

CUBS AND SCOUTS
Oak Ridges Cubs and Scouts will hold registrations for the fall season on Thursday, September 6 beginning at 7 p.m.

All boys interested in either Cubs or Scouts are urged to register at this time.

CRAFT CLASSES
The craft classes held at St. Paul's United Church will resume on Monday, September 10 at 7:30 p.m.

The fine art of quilting will be featured. If you don't know how to quilt, but would like to learn, this is your opportunity. If you already know how, but would enjoy an evening out to meet the other ladies and exchange ideas, you are welcome.

There is no charge for these classes. All you have to pay for is the materials you use, and these you are asked to supply.

The ladies meet in the church hall at St. Paul's United Church.

For additional information, please call Doreen Mitchell at 773-5603.

MINOR HOCKEY

Registrations for minor hockey will be held at Bond Lake Arena Saturday, September 8 and again on Saturday, September 15 from 10 a.m. — 4 p.m. both days.

To start the season off in style, there will be a family corn roast at the arena this Saturday from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. The price is $2 for each person.

Beginning at 9 p.m. in the Lions' Den there will be a dance, and everyone is welcome.
