

Inside Thornhill

Ramp constructed at Library

By GEORGIE BURKHOLDER

The Thornhill Village Library, 10 Colborne Street, is pleased to announce that a ramp has been constructed at the library to provide access to the building and its facilities for the handicapped who must use wheelchairs.

The ramp, built to provincial specifications and funded by Wintario, is located on the east side of the library, conveniently placed near the parking lot.

HAPPY HOUR

Children from 3-5 years will be entertained at the Thornhill Community Centre Children's Library on Tuesdays at 1:30 and 2 p.m., with story telling. Also, story telling will be a feature on Wednesdays at 10:30 and 11 a.m.

Children may be registered for one session only, with each group limited to 10 children.

KING TUT NIGHT

An Art Gallery Exhibit with slide show and lecture on the Treasures of King Tut will be a feature of the Thornhill Community Library Auditorium, October 4, at 8 p.m. A representative of the Art Gallery of Ontario will present the show.

If you register now, you just might be one of the lucky 75 people who will be admitted to the Thornhill Community Auditorium for the special preview. To register please call 881-5668.

MOVIE BUFFS

The Thornhill Cine Club will hold its first evening film for viewing and discussion on Tuesday, September 25 at 8:30 p.m. in the Thornhill Community Centre Library Auditorium. If you are interested in joining the club, come out and hear what it is all about.

OPEN HOUSE AT LIBRARY

At the Thornhill

Community Centre Library, during the month of September, the Art Wall will be covered with a display of art and literature submitted by the children of the area for the KIDS COUNT CONTEST. It is being held in honor of the International Year of the Child. Entry date closed on June 30 and pictures will be hung on September 10.

Puppet performances by children are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. and awards for both Kids Count and Funflower Reading Program will be given to participants at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium.

Refreshments will be served and you are invited to bring your friends and neighbors.

coming season.

Children at Bayview Fairways Public School will be registered on September 10; Bayview Glen on September 11; German Mills on September 12; Stornoway on September 13 and Baythorn Public School on September 14.

Mrs. Todd, with typical Scottish hospitality will conduct a strictly social evening for the adult group at Royal Orchard Public School on Wednesday evening, September 19. Beginners are welcome. You are invited to come and bring a friend, enjoy refreshments and decide whether you would like to be a regular member.

"It is the most pleasant form of exercise," Mrs. Todd explains.

Then, on Tuesday, September 11 at 8 p.m. Scottish Country Dancing classes will resume at Thornhill Presbyterian Church Hall under direction of Jeanette Todd, who says that any adult in the community is welcome and need not feel that they must bring a partner.

Thornhill & District

Horticultural society annual show Saturday

The Thornhill and District Horticultural Society will present their big Annual Show and Sale on Saturday, September 8, at the Gallanough Public Library, Brooke Street, Thornhill.

The Gallanough Library will be open just after 8 a.m. to receive entries and all entries must be in position by 10:30 a.m., when judging begins.

Show hours for the general public will be from 1:30 to closing, at 9 p.m.

Visitors will be provided with refreshments served in the Tea Room by the committee.

The plant table will be in full operation, receiving and selling plants.

A beautiful watercolor painting of orange lillies, the work of the society's own Kay Ackerman, will be offered as a draw prize.

The community is invited to come to the show and bring along family and friends.

The Thornhill and District Horticultural Society is undertaking its annual fall clean-up and planting of the Percy Bone Memorial Parkette in Thornhill Park on Saturday, September 15 at 10 a.m.

Members are advised that the Hamilton Chrysanthemum and Dahlia Show takes place at the Royal Botanical Gardens, Burlington, on September 22 and 23.

Heintzman House, Thornhill.

The groom's parents, William and Jean Mirrlees assisted.

The bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip to Jamaica and upon their return, will live in Thornhill.

Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church was the scene for the August 4 wedding of Amy Dianne Britnell and David James Mirrlees.

Both the bride and groom graduated from Bayview Secondary School and have been lifelong residents of Richmond Hill.

The bride was radiant in a long white gown with a net bodice trimmed in daisies. She was attended by a Matron of Honor, Darlene VanDenBrand; who wore a yellow blouson-style gown trimmed with daisies.

Other bridesmaids were Elizabeth Carswell, Heather Butterworth and Lesley LaJambe. All wore mint green gowns trimmed in daisies.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, John Britnell.

The groom was attended by his best man, Charles VanDenBrand of Brampton and ushers Donald Carswell, Richard Francis and Brian Madely.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bride's parents, John and Sheelaugh Britnell received 134 guests at
