Comedy farce opens on 27th

"There Goes the Bride" is a comedy farce being performed by the Curtain Club in Richmond Hill.

This production is the first of the new season and the first of the silver jubilee of the Curtain Club.

Polly Perkins is being played by Kim Rueterburg, who was seen in Major Barbara last season.

In her role she will sing and dance in the 1920s style.

Choreography is always a challenge and is aptly handled by Brenda Spearing.

Steve Turl plays the Dune buggy

crushes man

A Toronto man died when his dune buggy crushed him last week.

Alexander John William Bergen, 22, of Waterbury Drive, Weston, was driving his dune buggy near the King-Vaughan Line and the 10th Concession near Nashville.

He was driving up a steep embankment, when he lost control of the vehicle, which rolled over and landed on top of him crushing him.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Etobicoke General Hospital.
