

A BLOCK PARENT COMMUNITY

Now everyone knows

Councillor Al Duffy, who has supported Block Parents in Richmond Hill in their campaign for signs at entrances to the town, helps erect one on Mill Street at Bathurst Street. Richmond Hill Block Parents feel the signs informing visitors this town is protected by Block Parents will act as a deterrent to acts of violence to children. There are now 600 Block Parent homes in Richmond Hill and the organization is mounting a campaign to increase this number so there will be several homes on each block displaying signs in their window.
