

Minor ball holds championship day

It was the day for champions in Richmond Hill Minor House League softball Saturday with weatherman generally behaving in fine fashion for the occasion despite a chilling breeze. T-Ball championship action saw Baymar

Sports edge Rumble Transport 29-28 with David Krain showing the way with three homers with John Kile, James Grade and Tom Lannon each homering once. Freddie McKay and Steve Centa each homered for the losers.

Other action saw Kinnear Pontiac downing Powell Plumbing 12-5 in Junior Tyke play with Jason Jackson hitting the only homer of the game. In the Squirt championship game it was D.Q. Parfaits edging Loughlin Home Supply 3-2 in a hard-fought game between two well-matched teams. Congratulations to both coaches for their work over the season.

Sports, coached by Irwin Bruk, and assisted by Carl Lashley, blanked Rumble Transport 6-0. The losers, coached by Kevin Higgs and Larry Trotter, put up a good fight despite the score. Bryan Mason went three for three for the winners.

in the Richmond Hill Minor Ball League will play in a tournament to round out the season. A reminder that tickets can be purchased from the executive for the Fall Dance on October 13. The dance will be held at the ARC Industries Hall and a buffet will be served. Proceeds will go toward minor ball for the 1980 season.

Nats lose by 4-2

The Richvale Ann's Texaco Nationals saw their playoff hopes dim on the weekend as they dropped a 4-2 game to Bradford United in a tough, chippy contest. Richvale managed to out free-kick Bradford 4-1 in the first half but still trailed 2-0 going into the second half.

That second half saw the action pick up and tempers along with it with the referee almost calling the game midway through that half.

Playing-wise Bradford scored two more goals before Richvale came alive as Mark Kernohan scored the first goal and then set up Tim Whelan for the second one just seconds before the game ended.

The shots on goal were tied a three each and the free kicks at two each.

Tim Whelan performed well at centre field refusing to be intimidated by a tough Bradford defence.
