

Jeff Menczel wins tennis title

By ERICH HANDBURY

Jeff Menczel won the Junior Boy's Singles at Richmond Hill on the weekend defeating Steve Riswarick in a well-played match featuring a fine standard of quality that has become a tradition in the club.

Jeff follows in the footsteps of players who have carried the reputation of Richmond Hill's prowess in tennis farther afield: Mark Girdler, who won the championship at a very early age; the fast-serving Steve Cox; and Julian Handbury.

Menczel has every reason to feel proud of his win as are his parents, Norm and Sharon, who have done a great deal to train and encourage their son. Glen Marais, son of one of the club's best players and also the coach, won the 'A' consolation defeating N. Maetzer in the final round. Alison Cook, another player who will continue to be a credit to the Richmond Hill sports scene, won the girls' singles title defeating Jennifer Tidey. Linda Barbetta won over Robyn Tidd in the Consolation 'A' event.

FINALS
Players moving to the final September 23 in the Mixed Doubles Tournament are:
In the 'A' it will be J. Sheppard and J. Handbury vs D. Berry and F. Gafour; 'B', Oullette and T. Ascension vs K & J McKeown; 'C', M and Rand R. McDonald vs D. Brett and E. Handbury.

long rival, Glenfield, as they were downed 7-1 and 7-4. The first game of the series saw Glenfield leading by only a 2-1 count going into the bottom of the sixth, when a combination of Glenfield hits and Richmond Hill errors opened the gates to allow five runs to score. The Hillers never mounted much of an offence in this game, as they were limited to only five hits.

allowed 10 hits while fanning only two. Robby Chepelsky retired the last batter of the game. Despite the one bad inning, Richmond Hill's infield made many sharp fielding plays.

The Singles' championships will be held next weekend and all final events will be held on September 23.

Peter Yates will be in the Cable 10 studios (Wednesday) making up a series of programs built around the club clinic held recently. Stars of the show will be the people who attended the clinic.

Every member should tune in to this show (Date and time later). Peter will be giving some valuable advice on tennis and the clinic attendees should provide the comedy relief.

Bell Canada wins Over Cumbræ

Bell Canada nipped Cumbræ 3-2 in Richmond Hill Minor Soccer House League action last week.

Guy Piirto, Pat Kelly and Gus Karavinovius scored for the Bell team with Greg Houston and Mike Douse replying for Cumbræ.

Robbie Bell was tagged with the loss as he opened the gates to allow five runs to score. The Hillers never mounted much of an offence in this game, as they were limited to only five hits.

NEVER GAVE UP

Glenfield came out swinging in the second game, as they had three runs on six hits after the first two innings.

This saw Bell being removed, and Joe Apps coming onto to finish up the game in fine fashion. Together they allowed 10 hits and struck out five.

Despite being down 7-2 at one point, the Hillers fought back to close the gap, and only several great fielding plays prevented them from tying the game.

Their undoing came at the hands of their season-long rival, Glenfield, as they were downed 7-1 and 7-4.

The Dairy Queen boys had nine hits, with Dave Repath getting three. Cesidio Negri had two including a triple.

Cumbræ came up with a fine game continuing to play the type of soccer that featured the last half of the schedule. They were unlucky not to win.
