

York Regional Police News Briefs

Registrations set in Maple and Concord

Vehicles belonging to two people were damaged when paint remover was poured over them while they were parked in front of 6 Scott Drive, Richmond Hill, on September 1.

The vehicles belong to Mark D. Wilson of Ashlar Road, Richmond Hill, and to Jack Kelly of Lennox Avenue, Richmond Hill.

There was $1,000 damage to each vehicle.

LIFTING THEFT

Someone made off with a forklift truck from a housing development on Dufferin Street in Vaughan. The theft occurred between August 31 and September 2.

The forklift is valued at $14,000 and is owned by Brenta Contractors Limited of Concord.

INDECENT ASSAULT

A Richmond Hill man has been charged with indecent assault after a nine year old female, who was staying at his home, reported the assault to her mother.

The accused will appear in family court October 10.

AIR CONDITIONED

The Scotia Bank at 7681 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, was the victim of malicious damage on September 9 at 2:40 a.m.

Someone threw two rocks through the front window.

MALICIOUS DAMAGE

Someone damaged the instruments of two earth-movers and a bulldozer at a construction site on Steeles Avenue east of Dufferin Street.

The equipment is owned by Con-Drain of Rexdale.

One earthmover was started and driven into an office trailer on the site.

Damages are estimated at $1,000.

Registration time for the Maple and Concord area branches of the Girl Guide Organization has arrived.

In Concord, the 1st Concord Brownies (aged six to nine) will register at the Patricia Kemp Community Centre on Wednesday, September 19, at 4:30 p.m.

There will be a brief gathering of mothers and daughters at this time, to discuss plans for the coming year.

Concord girls, aged nine to 12 who are interested in Guides and those aged 12 to 15 and interested in a new group called Pathfinders, may join with the girls in Maple and register at the Joseph A. Gibson Public School on Monday, September 17 at 7 p.m.

Brownies in Maple will register at the same time.

The Maple and Concord area has a new District Commissioner. She may be reached at 832-2653.
