

Hill Bantam girls win 'B' title

The Richmond Hill Dairy Queen Bantam girls finished off the season in fine style by peeling Applewood to win the Post County Playoffs in the "B" division.

Having downed the Applewood team in the first game, the Dairy Queen played one of its best games of the season to squeak out a 6-5 win.

Minor Ball

The Richmond Hill Minor Ball House League held its season-ending final round-up tournament on the weekend with all the teams getting into the action.

Among the big winners were the following:

Parents Tykes: Block Junior scraped to a narrow 2-1 victory over Kinross Pontiac in this rouser which saw Craig Turner and another unidentified player scoring the winning runs for Block Parents. Jason Jackson scored for Kinross.

Senior girls' action saw Dairy Queen edging by Hanson's Flowers in a real squeaker to take the tournament champions in this division.

And it was York Regional Towing downing Boyle's Shell 10-1 with a big seven-run fourth inning telling the tale.

Among the big hitters for the winners was D. Roemer with two hits. B. Dunnett scored two runs with single runs going to S. Costa, D. Roemer, J. Evans, K. Kufner, B. Stewart two runs, B. Marinoff, and C. Kegel. Mike Frawlick got the lone run for Boyle's on a home run in the second inning.

Dairy Queen Parfait captured the Squirt championship by way of a 14-5 triumph over Loughlin Home Supply. The big inning was the fourth with the winners scoring 10 runs.

Edward Kamerman scored two runs for the losers with singles to Brian Nelson, Bruce Nelson, John Kennedy and Paul Church.

T-Ball play saw Baymar Sports edging O.H.E.U. 25-24 with James Gaade standing out defensively catching three pop flies. Jason Hill caught one.

Then it was the Rumble Transport Peewee II's winning out over Record Shop 11-9.

Intermediate girls ball it was T-Shirt Shop edging the Record Shop 14-13.

Previous week's final championship action saw Ramsey Rec downing Aurora Recycling of Oak Ridges 10-4 to win the Bantam championship.

Ken Topley coaches the winners while Frank Mashinter handles the recycling team.

The game was tied going into the final inning when Applewood connected for three hits in a row to score the go-ahead run.

Richmond Hill was not to be out-done. With two out, and Patti O'Sullivan on base with a single, an error by Applewood's first baseman allowed Kathy Chepelsky to reach first safely. Jane Stephenson then hit a long drive to centre scoring two runs and winning the game. It was a thrilling end to a well-played series.

In celebration, the team entered its final tournament of the season in Bay Ridges. They got off to a great start in this double knock-out series by defeating the All-Ontario champion North Bendale (Scarborough), then lost to Don Victoria, topped Uxbridge and North Bendale again, but lost to the thorn in their side, Bay Ridges, who have ended several tournaments for the Dairy Queen girls this summer.

Richmond Hill 8 North Bendale 3. The Hill jumped into a five-run lead in the first inning as Jane Stephenson banged a triple with two runners on base, and Janet Gerritse with a drive to centre brought in two more runs.

Cathy Lawlor and Debbie Ceballo also came through with clutch hitting. Pitcher Kathy Chepelsky gave up five scattered hits and two walks while striking out 13, to frustrate the North Bendale team.

Don Victoria 7 Richmond Hill 5. The Dairy Queen girls couldn't find the range with their bats in this one although Melanie Ryland almost turned the game around with a long homer in the last inning with no one on base.

Don Victoria had one good inning when they connected with three hits and stretched them into six runs. Pam MacInnis and Kathy Chepelsky shared the pitching duties giving up a total of five hits and striking out nine.

NO-HITTER
Richmond Hill 7 Uxbridge 0. Pitcher Pam MacInnis threw an excellent no-hitter, striking out 17 and issuing only five walks. Her teammates were held to five hits, but got a helping hand from six Uxbridge errors to run up the score.

Janet Gerritse, Kathy Trumbull, Jane Stephenson, Cathy Lawlor and Pam MacInnis contributed singles. Only two Uxbridge runners were able to reach third base safely, and they were stranded there.

Richmond Hill 10 North Bendale 0. The All-

Ontario champions once again met their match as they were able to get only two hits from Karen McInnis, while striking out seven times in the five innings played. For the Hill, Jane Stephenson, Cathy Lawlor, Kathy Chepelsky, Terry Olczak, Joey Stephenson, and Patti O'Sullivan connected with their bats for well placed hits.

Bay Ridges 3 Richmond Hill 0. The Dairy Queen were unable to find the range with their bats as they got only two hits from Heather Moore and Kathy Chepelsky. Both teams played good defensive games and the runs scored came on homers.

Pitcher Karen McInnis gave up only four hits while striking out four. Heather Moore and Karen McInnis laid down excellent bunts throughout the series to advance runners on base. It was a most commendable performance by the entire team, several of whom were fighting the flu as well, and an admirable effort to end the season.
