Debra Anderson, John Morris wed in Richmond Hill

Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church was the scene of the recent wedding of Debra Suzanne Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Anderson of Willowdale, and John Sheldon Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Morris of Scarborough.

Debra is also granddaughter of Richmond Hill Judge James Butler.

Officiating clergyman was Rev. William Wallace.

Kathy Cornick sang the Wedding Prayer and "There is Love", while William Hazell was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor length gown of chiffon trimmed with lace, and a large wide brim lace hat.

Her bouquet was made up of white daisies, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Denis Anderson, maid of honor and sister of the bride, wore a solid mint green gown with a flowered chiffon cape.

The bridesmaids, Darlene Low, sister of the bride, Bonnie Niles and June Barclay wore a solid mellow yellow gown with a flowered chiffon cape.

All of the attendants carried yellow and white daisies with baby's breath and wore white gloves.

The flower girl was Jenny Ali, godchild of the groom, and she wore a yellow dress with white gloves and carried a small basket of flowers. The groom wore a black tuxedo with his attendants in grey.

The best man was Ward Jardine and the ushers were David Anderson, brother of the bride, Steve Morris, brother of the groom, and Russ Niles.

The ringbearer was Jeff Parasol, nephew of the bride.

The reception followed with the bride's uncle,

Stan Butler, as master of ceremonies and Bob Street toasting the bride.

Receiving the guests, the bride's mother wore a floor length gown of sea mist green with matching jacket and she wore a yellow orchid.

The groom's mother wore a floor length gown of powder blue with a pink orchid.

The wedding cake was made by the bride's grandmother Mrs. J. Butler.

The newlyweds will reside in Scarborough.
