

Pastor will get official welcome this Sunday

St. Mary's Anglican Church in Richmond Hill has a new priest and he will be officially welcomed as pastor this Sunday, September 23, at 7:30 p.m. at his Induction Service.

The Venerable Gerald Philip Loweth took over duties at St. Mary's on September 1 after serving as Archdeacon in both Honolulu and Scarborough.

Once before, December 1971 to May 1972, Mr. Loweth was at St. Mary's Anglican Church, that time as priest in charge on the death of The Rev. David McGuire.

The new rector notices changes in the congregation from those days, changes he attributes to the "remarkable" work of Bernard Barrett (St. Mary's past minister).

"He set up a most remarkable organization at St. Mary's," he said, "the depth of sharing and caring, and participation of the laity in decision making is remarkable."

Mr. Loweth hopes to involve the congregation at St. Mary's in what he considers the two directions his ministry has followed over the years — spiritually in prayer and involvement in social issues.

Greater attention to prayer and devotional life, more intensive bible study programs, physical and psychological healing as well as educational programs on social issues such as capital punishment, corporate social responsibility and refugees and immigration, are the areas Mr. Loweth plans to devote special attention.

The Rev. Canon Desmond Hunt from the Church of the Messiah will be guest preacher at Mr. Loweth and his family in Wrixon Hall.
