Children entertain at function

The rafters rang and the children sang. That was the scene Monday night in the auditorium at the Richmond Hill United Church when an old-fashioned sing-a-long led by the Very Reverend N. Bruce McLeod at the piano took place.

The evening of friendship and talent was organized by the United Church Women.

In recognition of the International Year of the Child, entertainment was provided by the children of the congregation.

Mistress of Ceremonies Yvonne Sale, introduced a succession of talented youngsters who played instruments, acted, sang, danced and even "hopped" their way into the hearts of the audience.

GO Transit bus fares altered

Commuters using GO Transit on both Yonge Street and Bayview Avenue to the Finch Subway will pay 50 cents for the ride beginning Monday, October 1.

This fare is an increase of 10 cents for Yonge Street users and a decrease of 10 cents for those using the Bayview Service.

The fare change is part of a plan to integrate the local GO services with municipal transit which ultimately, according to GO Transit authorities, should see a common fare structure.

Transfer privileges are provided on both the Yonge Street and Bayview Avenue service to the Richmond Hill

Transit town service.

Transit Co-ordinator for Richmond Hill, Bud Newton, said it will be a simple procedure to transfer from GO Transit to the local bus, but when transferring the other way, from Richmond Hill Transit to GO Transit, the passenger will be required to pay the difference.

The complete new tariff for GO Transit, Richmond Hill to the Finch Subway, will be adults, 50 cents, students, 35 cents, children and senior citizens, 25 cents.

GO Transit's Bayview bus service will undergo another major change also on October 1. At that time buses will operate at 30 minute frequency during rush hour and hourly during mid-day, with no service being provided in evenings or on weekends and holidays.

Routing will also change, with buses travelling down Bayview Avenue only as far south as John Street in Thornhill and cross John Street to Yonge Street, then along Yonge to the terminal at the Finch subway station.

Due to Markham Transit's recently instituted service operating on the same route from Thornlea Secondary School, GO buses will not handle local passengers south of Highway 7.
