

Sheppard triple winner

By ERIC HANDBURY
Jennifer Sheppard was tops in the ladies singles and Paul Beck in the mens at the annual Richmond Hill Tennis Club championships on the weekend.

man Bill Armstrong had been able to select the weather from the mail order catalogue I don't think he would have come up with a wiser choice for the weather than what we had for the finals.

The brilliant open class youngster defeated Richard Vermuelen in a fine display of tennis tactics and power before a large audience.

The Ladies singles, Jennie has also been most successful in Canadian Open Junior tennis and, young yet, will no doubt bring a lot of credit to the club in the future.

Paula, to take the Ladies' Doubles and the Mixed Doubles championship partnered by John Handbury.

Mens Singles 'C' it was Heinz Losberg defeating Ken Cox.

Ladies Singles 'B' saw Ellen Querengesser defeating Roby Oullette; Ladies Single 'C', Shirley Stanley over Edith Dilworth; Mens Doubles 'A', John Handbury and Paul Beck defeated Don Smith and Greg McMillan.

Mens Doubles 'B', Tony Ascencio and Barry Glading upended Jim Rook and Jim Dilworth; Mens Doubles 'C', Hans Bruhn and Ken Cox defeated Glen Yamamoto and Graham Sibthorpe.

Ladies Doubles 'A', Jennifer and Paula Sheppard defeated Joy August and Monica Vermeulen; Ladies Doubles Consolation, Myrna Willison and Roby Oullette downed Edith Dilworth and Christine Petrucci.

Mixed Doubles 'A', John Handbury and Jennifer Sheppard defeated Firo Gafoor and Debby Berry; Mixed Doubles 'B', Tony Ascencio and Roby Oullette over Ken and Jane McKeown; Mixed Doubles 'C', to be played later.

Also tops was the weather.

It was another squeaker in Pleasantville's third game win over Sam's Aft Cabin of Newmarket by a 7-6 score.

Then came the fourth and final game for the championship with Pleasantville nipping Uxbridge 10-9 in a come-from-behind effort.

Hill Squirts split

The Richmond Hill Dairy Queen Squirts were forced into a third and deciding game in their quest for the Etobicoke Softball Association championship as they split a pair of games with Bramalea last week.

Robbie Bell did the hurling and threw a fine game, as he allowed seven hits while also striking out seven.

Richmond Hill but was relieved by Bell. Together they gave up nine hits while walking three and striking out three.

Both scored on Rose Marie McLean's double. The clincher came when Corinne Cieszynski belted her second home run of

DISASTER

The opening game ended in dramatic fashion, with Richmond Hill winning 6-3 in eight innings.

Richmond Hill's demise in the second game could be narrowed down to one inning, the second, as Bramalea exploded for seven runs on their way to a 10-7 victory.

Uxbridge led Pleasantville 8-4 going into the top of the fourth inning when dynamite struck again. Namely, Corinne Cieszynski came to the plate with two out and the bases loaded to pound out a grand-slammer to tie the game

With the score tied 2-2 after regulation play, Bramalea came back with a home run in the top of the eighth, to put the pressure on the Hill squad.

Two walks, two errors and four hits were the cause of this scoring binge which put the Hillers behind 7-1.

Richmond Hill continued to fight back to make the game close as they left eight men on base.

Refusing to die, the Hill boys loaded the bases, which set the stage for a grand slam home run by Jim Hughes.
