

Edna Pringle (left) and Grace Boynton stand in front of Mrs. Pringle's room in the Continuing Care Unit at York Central Hospital. They are admiring the new room signs that clearly show the room number and who is a patient in that room. The funds for the signs were raised by the Xi Gamma Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority of Aurora. In addition to room numbers, there are large signs denoting Recreation and Activity rooms. The new signs are bright blue, which is one of the best colors for people with vision problems. (Liberal Photo by Millie Stewart).

Clothes abound for Boat People

Vietnamese "Boat People" coming to Richmond Hill will be well and warmly dressed, according to Marilyn Schiller, co-ordinator of clothing for Operation Lifeline Association of Richmond Hill. Mrs. Schiller said she feels the only shortage is in trousers for small boys. The Old Wright Street Firehall, where clothes are being stored, is open Wednesday mornings from 9 to 11 a.m. for donations. Volunteers have separated the clothing donated into lots for men, women and children and

Children help raise Humane Society funds

This Saturday, September 29, school children will be scurrying through town helping to collect money for the York County Branch of the Ontario Humane Society. Figures from last year show the shelter took in about five animals per day — abandoned or strayed cats or dogs, or pets owners didn't want any longer. Miss Eggleton said about 50 per cent of these animals taken in and cared for at the shelter are "put to sleep" or euthanized and the other 50 per cent are adopted or claimed by their owners. Tag Day will be held Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Richmond Hill.
