

DEBBIE GREENFIELD
Hill girl plays movie role

Richmond Hill is the home of yet another promising star. This time it's Debbie Greenfield, 11, of Yongehurst Road. Debbie was selected from a list of several to portray "Kim" in a movie called "Prom Night", which is scheduled to be released in the spring of 1980. Debbie plays "Kim," in her younger years, and Jamie Lee Curtis, who is the daughter of Tony Curtis and Janet Leigh, plays the role of Kim in her teen and later years. The Richmond Hill girl was chosen for the part because she closely resembles Miss Curtis. Some of the movie scenes were filmed at the Langstaff Jail Farm, and those who see it, will also recognize the Richmond Hill Fire Department in some of the shots. No stranger to cameras, Debbie has been a model for advertising for the past eight years, and her picture has appeared in catalogues, newspapers, magazines and on TV commercials. Debbie's parents are Claire and Norma Greenfield and they are proud of their daughter's achievement, but not as proud as Debbie. She was delighted to be treated as just one of the cast by the stars of the movie.

Free grandstand show treat at Woodbridge Fair

A free grandstand show at 12 noon following the 11 a.m. parade Saturday is but one of the many new items introduced to this year's 132nd annual Woodbridge Fall Fair. Headlining the show is Billy Meek, star of television's Pig and Whistle. Young and old alike will enjoy the antics of ventriloquist Johnny Main, who will astonish you with the many feats he accomplishes. Along with "Archie" and the rest of his lifelike friends, Johnny has delighted adults as well as children, having performed in night clubs, hotels, television, fairs, military bases, banquets and various children shows. Add Andre Blumauer to the list — a Canadian artist born in Austria. Andy is an international harmonica artist-entertainer and musician-band leader. In addition to many television performances, Andy has appeared four times at the CNE grandstand and appears annually at the CNE Carlsberg Pavilion.

All three stars above are courtesy of Canada's Wonderland. In addition, performers so far committed include the Ontario Provincial Police Pipe Band; the Jack and Jill Promenadors and the Richvale Majorettes. Nancy McCaig, formerly of the Uncle Bob tv show, will act as MC. And it's all free with your admission to the fair grounds. In addition to the Fair Queen Pageant Friday night, it's Royal Bank Date Night (wear a button and ride the Conklin Midway for half price) and now this year is the talent show. New items to Saturday's action include a beef barbecue at 5 p.m. and a teen dance at 8:30 p.m. An antique gas engine display and the McLaughlin antique car display are also new this year. Sunday's new features include a flea market, Ayrshire Cattle Show, Gymkhana Show in the Hunters' Ring and the KenJen Petting Zoo. Canadian dirt track motorcycle racing activities, but there is plenty more. For full details on the 1979 edition of The Woodbridge Fall Fair, please see the advertisement elsewhere in this newspaper.
