Appoint Sports Dean

Seneca College of Applied Arts and Technology has announced the appointment of John Cruickshank as its first Dean of Physical Education and Athletics.

Cruickshank, who recently moved to Thornhill, was formerly Director of Athletics and Recreation at Sheridan College in Oakville.

John Cruickshank of Thornhill has been appointed Dean of Physical Education and Athletics at Seneca College of Applied Arts and Technology. He was formerly Director of Athletics and Recreation at Sheridan College in Oakville.

activities under the leadership of one person.

Cruickshank, who has been with Sheridan since its inception 11 years ago, is a past president of the Ontario Colleges Athletic Association, current second vice-president of the Canadian Colleges Athletic Association.

He is also a former chairman of Ontario sportplan, and an ongoing consultant and teacher in the National Coaching Certification program. Earlier in his career, John taught at Downsview Secondary School and Northmount Junior High School in North York. He is a graduate of the University of Waterloo with a Bachelor of Science in mathematics and a Bachelor of Physical and Health Education.

ANOTHER FIRST

Seneca also announced the forming of the first Women's Varsity Softball team in the history of Canadian College Athletics. The team will be coached by Cliff Dunkeld of Stouffville who has been associated with organized softball since he was 16 years of age when he played and coached for the Altona Intermediates in the Claremont Community League.

It will play a series of exhibition games in the top-rated U.S. National Junior College Athletic Association next year against such teams as Schenectady County College, Paul Smith College in New York and Monroe College in Rochester.

The schedule will consist of 13 home and 13 away games with a doubleheader opener slated for April 11 at Seneca with Corning providing the opposition.

MEET LAURA
Among the area players with the team will be pitcher Laura Fahey, 18, of Thornhill.

"In fact," states coach Dunkeld, "Laura is my only pitcher right now." Laura, a first year Legal Secretarial student, has played softball for several years in the Thornhill area House League and Midget teams. She's a graduate of Thornlea Secondary School.

Coach Dunkeld is optimistic about the chances of his first-year team.

"The girls have the potential as individuals and can come together

Bond Steel Atoms win two more

Richmond Hill Bond Steel Atom goalies Jason Maxey and David Sharon shared the duties as their teammates walloped Bramalea 8-0. The team then downed Thornhill 3-1 on Saturday.

Brian Hunt was a four-goal man for the Hillers in the first game with Aldo Teofilo getting two and singles to Danny Jensen and Pat Fleming, the latter's goal coming with only 41 seconds left on the clock.

Anthony Suchy had a good assists game getting three with Andy Minuti and play ball as a competitive team. We've had several practices and I feel that with hard work and dedication by the players we will win our share of games and have fun doing it."

Seneca will also be competing on many other sports fronts including Women's hockey, basketball and volleyball.

Some of the well-known players include ex-Richmond Hill Rams' stalwarts Billy Stephenson, Tony Bellavance and Dave Stuart plus goalie Doug Brunwell, formerly of the Oak Ridges Dynes Jewellers Junior B's, Hal Murphy and Don Macphee.

Barrel Pizza in hockey tournament

The Richmond Hill Barrel Pizza Parlour hockey team will kick off its tournament season this weekend in Niagara Falls.

Bolstering a line-up of ex-Junior hockey players the team will concentrate strictly on entering tournaments again this season.
