

Fifth annual Penny-wise sale October 26-27

Your own mother couldn't be more particular than the Penny-Wise sorters who are preparing for their fifth annual Fall bonanza for thirty shoppers to be held Friday, October 26 and Saturday, October 27 in Vaughan's Vellore Hall. Only the best quality and servability in clothing gets to stay for your selection of gently-used articles for men, women and children of all ages. Regulars to the Penny-Wise Sale will be glad to learn prices haven't changed. Newcomers will be pleased to learn children's clothing is priced from 25 cents to a 'high' of 75 cents.

Youths' and girls' T-shirts, tops, slacks, skirts, jackets and heavy sweaters are in the same price range. Adults' clothing remains a good buy with top price of $1.50 for coats. A special 'boutique' section features thoroughbred articles at slightly higher prices.

Household collectables and Hallowe'en costumes will be snapped up by smart shoppers who know a bargain when they see one. Doors open Friday at 2 p.m. and close at 8 p.m. All goods will be at half price Saturday, from 10 a.m. until noon. Proceeds will go to the Vaughan Community Information Services (formerly HELP). Vellore Hall is located on Weston Road, west of Highway 400 and north of Highway 7. Parking is free and plentiful.

Annual bazaar on Saturday in King City

The Women's Association of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in King City will hold its annual bazaar this Saturday, October 27 from 2 to 4 p.m.

In the church auditorium on Keele Street North, baked goods, jams, quilts, knit goods and Barbie Doll outfits will be offered for sale. A new feature this year will be the Candy Table operated by the Young People's Group. The project is part of their sponsorship of a child in India. A cup of tea and refreshments may be enjoyed in the Tea Corner before going to the Church House next door where the Book Nook, the Noel Shoppe, Beachcombers' Wharf and the Green Thumb Shop will display used books, Christmas decorations, countless small, but useful cast-offs, and house plants. Children's Fish Pond for young anglers.

Cars collide, Hill driver is injured

A Richmond Hill man is in serious condition as a result of a motor vehicle collision on Leslie Street, Richmond Hill on Sunday. Paul Petzey, 18 of Mayvern Crescent, Richmond Hill, was driving his vehicle southbound on Leslie Street, at 10 a.m., when he lost control of the vehicle and it crossed the road colliding with a vehicle being driven northbound by Roy Hampson, 40 of 14th Avenue, Markham.
