

Doughnut dunking? That's not a doughnut the girls are chasing. It's "Ringette"—hockey at the Richmond Hill Arena every Saturday from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. Two teams have been selected this season to play one another in fun games with hopes of expanding to four teams next season. The new executive urges all 1979 coaches to turn in any equipment that may still be in their possession as there is a lot of equipment unaccounted for. Please contact either the equipment manager, George Nelson or President Ferrando at 884-6028 or 884-2883.

Minor Atoms win two

The 1979-80 edition of the Richmond Hill Tournaments Incorporated Minor Bantams started their season off with 3-2 and 7-2 triumphs over Pickering and Brampton respectively.

Alas and alack they lost their next two games to Ajax and the same Pickering team they'd beaten previously.

The opener against Pickering was notable for the fine goaltending of Rasheed Saleuddin and Bill Keats who shared duties equally and each allowed a goal apiece.

Offensively it was Kevin Ryan scoring the first goal on a solo effort followed by Shawn Gallagher on a pretty effort from Scott Russell and John Zandona. The final goal was courtesy of Gino Digioacchino from Ryan and Dave Abernethy.

Ryan was the big offensive gun in the win against Brampton firing in three goals with Scott Boyle in hot pursuit with two and singles to Orveo Paoletti and John Zandona. Assists went to Paul Joslin, Shawn Gallagher, Ralph Seybold, and Boyle with two.

The third game against Ajax was a little more difficult for the Hill although goalie Saleuddin came up with an excellent effort. That wasn't the case with his teammates who couldn't get it together. James Barry got the only Richmond Hill goal on a beauty setup by John Zandona.

The return trip to Pickering resulted in a 6-3 loss with Richmond Hill goals going to Scott Boyle from Ryan and Russell; Russell from Boyle and Digioacchino; and Abernethy from Seybold and Scott Steckley.
