665 In Memoriam

HAMBLYN - In loving memory of my dear husband, Robert, who passed away November 4, 1978.

"So many times, I needed you, So many times I've cried, So many things have happened, Since the day you died, I will never understand, I always ask Him why, Dear God, in Heaven, Why did you let him die, It is lonely here without you, I miss you more each day, For life is not the same to me, Since you were called away, If I could have one more lifetime wish, One dream that could come true, I would pray to God with all my heart, For yesterday and you, Not one day forgotten - Your loving wife, Sylvia.

Police Service awards

Five York Regional Police officers with a total service of 125 years were presented with long service medals and service bars at last Wednesday's police commission meeting.

Those honored included Inspector Les Pengally (30 years), Inspector Robert Burbidge (25 years), Staff Sergeant Leonard Stribbell (25 years), Sergeant Donald Dukes (25 years) and Sergeant John McCague (20 years).

Judge Donald Couture, police commission chairman, expressed the commission's appreciation to the men. "You've served your community long and well," Judge Couture said. "I extend our appreciation for past services and for services you will render in the future."

International Day of the Child was celebrated in schools throughout Canada on October 24. These boys in a special education class at Beverley Acres School, Richmond Hill spent countless hours working on their totem pole. The actual totem pole is made of juice cans covered with plaster strips and decorated with authentic Indian symbols. Each

Ruth Taylor, a Grade 2 teacher at Ross Doan Public School, Richmond Hill, was served muffins by her class in honor of International Day of the Child. The muffins were made by the school children with a
