

Marway Midgets win 6-2, then lose 4-2

It was a great beginning for the Richmond Hill Marway Farms Minor Midgets last week when they opened their 1979-80 regular schedule with a 6-2 decision over Aurora.

The initial joy was somewhat tempered when they later dropped their second game 4-2 to Barrie Sunday.

That game saw Richmond Hill start off on the right foot with the opening goal scored by Duane Aubie from Carl Boyle. Barrie then proceeded to rap in three straight goals to lead 3-1 going into the second period.

Mark Joslin breathed life into the Hill hopes in the second period when he narrowed the score to 3-2 on a penalty shot. Barrie, unfortunately, scored the only goal in the final period and that into an empty net.

That wasn't the case against Aurora as the Hill led all the way scoring two in the first period courtesy of Barry Munro from Mark Stevens and Ben Carbone; and Carl Boyle from Mark Joslin.

They opened the scoring in the second with Barry Munro firing the goal but Aurora came back to score twice before the period ended.

Drywall wins by 6-0

McKinlay Drywall Peeewees dumped Mister Transmission 6-0 last week in Richmond Hill

Minor House League hockey play. Goalscorers for the winners were Robbie Kleine, Bob Kirkpatrick, Stephen Byer, Mark Fleming, Larry Curry and Tony Dicesare.

Minor Atoms win 3-0

The Richmond Hill Minor Atoms downed Orillia 3-0 in their first league game of the 1979-80 season.

Paterson scored the goals with assists going to Pino Decina, Dean Arsenosi and Hodges.

earned a well-deserved shutout. Chris Rich, Rob Patterson, Jeff Macey and Jan Tennant all played well on defence. Paul Black, Derek Flood, and Randy Cull stood out on the forward line.

Hill minor bantams defeat Orillia 6-3

A rejuggling of their lines proved to be the perfect recipe for victory for the Richmond Hill Minor Bantams on Sunday.

the team's more diminutive players - Kevin Ryan, Scott Boyle and James Barry - accounted for three of the Richmond Hill goals.

It was Ryan scoring from Scott Boyle to start it off and only minutes later it was Boyle doing it again with an assist from James Barry. The line's

Hill schools shine in cross country

Richmond Hill schools dominated the top standings in the Area 3 public school cross-country running championships held last Thursday at the Boyd Conservation Area.

Mackenzie second and Glen Dimpfel of MacKillop third. The girls 13 and over class went to Mackenzie. Marge Cross of MacKillop placed first followed by Carolyn Ussher of Mackenzie and Joanne Lowthian of Joseph Gibson (Maple).

The fastest race of the day, boys over 13 was won by John Taylor of Mackenzie. Second was Geoff Kuyten of Beverley Acres and third was Shawn Gallagher of MacKillop.

Hill student is in The Sand

A Richmond Hill student at York University will be among the cast of "The Sand", a play which opens in Burton Auditorium November 12 and continues through November 17.

Dan Lett is a student in York's Department of Theatre.

The Faculty of Fine Arts at York is presenting the world premiere of Marion Andre's holocaust play, at the auditorium on the main York campus, 4700 Keele Street.

Oak Ridges then met Devins Drive again for the championship and won it 1-0 on a goal by Brown.

Coach of the team is Geoff Green. Players are Blayne Fredrick and Paul Torlone, goalies; defence, Brian Whitehouse, Andrew Aldworth, Jamie Scott and Gino Rulli; halfbacks, Mike Smith, Steven Robinson, Gary Warner, Kenny Heintzman, and Kris Walsh; forwards, Jean-Paul Hoffman, Ronnie Lusk, Willy Robinson, captain, Jason Leggett, Guy Brown.

Then came a 2-0 victory over Whitchurch with Willy Robinson getting the first goal on a penalty shot and Jason Leggett the second one.

Oak Ridges then met Devins Drive again for the championship and won it 1-0 on a goal by Brown.

'Birds win

The Thornhill Minor Atom Thunderbirds salted away their first regularly scheduled game of the season via a 5-2 victory over Aurora. They were defeated in pre-season exhibition games.

Glen Tainsh led the team with two goals with singles to Louis Spadacini, Stanley Misthios, and Andrew Duckman. Assists went to Les Titleman, Danny Diliddo, Andrew Duckman, Dave Osborne, Len Sparks and Tainsh.

Admission is free and tickets may be reserved by calling the Burton Auditorium box office at 667-2370, Monday to Friday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.
