Kent's spiel won by Avonlea

A rink from Avonlea captured the annual Richmond Hill Curling Club's Kent Clothes Invitational held last Saturday which saw a total of 24 rinks competing.

Four rinks were entered from the home club in Richmond Hill with the remaining 20 rinks coming from various clubs in Toronto and the suburbs.

The winning rink was skipped by Rolie Hamar. Another Avonlea rink, skipped by Don Montgomery, finished second, followed by Ed Hay and his Suburban Schoolmusters.

Consolation prize in the first draw went to Graham Dudley and his team from Tam Heather for having the highest scoring game.

The second draw was won by the Mike Shepard rink from Chinguacousy closely followed by the Carruthers foursome from Brampton in second spot, and Carriere's Chinguacousy rink in third place. Consolation prize in the second draw was won by the Schild Orangeville rink.

Richmond Hill rinks Peewee B's lose by 6-1

The Richmond Hill Peewee B's got off to a shaky start in their first league game of the season losing 6-1 to Newmarket right in Newmarket.

Only goal for Richmond Hill was scored by Kenny McGivern in the second period from Steve Roman and Sean McKenna.

The locals fared better in an exhibition encounter against Stroud winning 4-1.

Richmond Hill led 1-0 in the first period on a goal by Steve Grimshaw from Kerry Newman and McGivern. The second period saw Steven Hull from Grimshaw; Vince Romano from Brian Wookey and Jeff Henkin; and Romano from Wookey and Henkin.

Stroud got the final goal of the game.

The Oak Ridges Allan's Shell Bantams poured the petrol to Maple as they drilled that team 11-2 in town rep action.

Frank Rossi showed the way with three goals with two each to Neal Wilson, Robert Muzzin and Robert Sanders. Single goals went to John Lalonde and Kori Leivo. Assists to Mike Millard, two, Sanders, Rick Kalkanis, and Lalonde.

Other York Simcoe action saw:

Atoms: Georgia East 6, Oak Ridges Montego Forest Products 3. Montego came up short in Sutton against Georgian East with Jason Cairns, Allen Munro and Grant O'Meara getting the goals. Assists went to Shawn Douse, Gino Rulli and Sean Sanderson.

Georgia East 3, Oak Ridges Montego 3. The Ridges boys managed to knot the score with only three minutes remaining. It was Grant O'Meara getting two goals for the winners with Gino Rulli getting the other one. Melvin Van Horn, Steve Robinson and Frank Busnello each had an assist.

Novice: Oak Ridges 10, Maple 0. Richard Wilkins and Leo Cummins had themselves a field day scoring five and four goals respectively with Wayne Kelly getting the other one. Assists to Joey Armstrong, Trevor Birmingham, Greg LaBelle, Derek LaBelle, three, Cummins, and Joe Dabruzzo.

The team is sponsored by Victoria Square Lions Club.

HOUSE LEAGUE

Novice: Maple 3, Gormley Sand and Gravel 1. Craig Trott got the only goal for Oak Ridges.

Atoms: Gerrits Well Drilling 1, Oak Ridges No. 2. Exceptional goaltending by goalies Rod LaBelle and Carl Good together with a balanced offence highlighted the play of both teams.

The Drillers' goal was scored by Van Smith from Derek Dukelow while Dave Phillipott scored unassisted for the No. 2 team.

Gerrits Well Drilling 0, Maple IGA 0. This was a goalie's duel all the way with Rod LaBelle particularly standing out for Gerrits. There were several scoring opportunities on both sides.

Peewee: Oak Ridges Doane Hall 2, DH and A of Maple 2. Don Rawding scored for Doane Hall from Ron Rawding; and Ron Rawding, yep, Don Rawding. Passer got both goals for Maple assisted on the second one by Kerr.

Maple Meat Shop 1, Oak Ridges Doane Hall 1. Derek Else scored for Maple while Chris Mohl replied for Doane Hall from Douse.

Doane Hall 5, T&J Cleaners 1. Chris Mohl fired in two goals for Doane with singles going to Greg Bub, Michael MacGean and Don Rawding. Warner scored for T&J Cleaners.
