

Entertaining Kingsmen back to entertain again

The all-male musical theatre group known as The Kingsmen will present their annual variety show in the Auditorium of King City United Church on Friday, November 16, Saturday, November 17 and Friday, November 23.

Three other performances will be given but to a restricted, advance sale, audience. Part of the show is devoted to Rogers & Hammerstein's "South Pacific" including chorus songs such as You've Got To Be Taught, Younger Than Springtime, and solos for Bali Ha'i (Ken Riley), Honey Bun (Art Rossiter), and Wonderful Guy (Norm Matthews). The four Kingsmen dancers (female impersonators) will do a routine to "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Outa My Hair" dressed as buxom nurses (hairy legs and all). Other chorus songs will include "Everything is Beautiful", "Climb Ev'ry Mountain", "Rivers of Babylon", and "Commercials". A number of short, comedy skits will happen and wandering minstrels Hubbard, Robson, and Matthews will sing "Puff, The Magic Dragon". Dancers for the show are Russ Urganhart, John Matthews, Norm Matthews, and Ed Mazuk. (Standing in for one performance will be Andrej Saulesleja). Producer of the show is Ted Munroe; Musical Director, Gary Hubbard (of A & M Records Ltd); and organist Roy Robson (artist of some fame and also Principal of Joseph A. Gibson school, Maple) playing his large Conn electronic organ.

Church Auditorium is located on Elizabeth Grove Avenue just East of Keele Street, King City. Showtime each night is 8 p.m.

For tickets, call 773-5132 or 833-6606, or ask any member of the cast.
