

Santa arrives Saturday morning at Hillcrest Mall

For a preview of Richmond Hill's Santa Claus parade, you can catch Santa and Mrs. Claus in a parade this Saturday at Hillcrest Mall.

The parade begins at 11 a.m.

Joining Santa and Mrs. Claus will be Fred Flintstone, and Yogi Bear from Canada's Wonderland in Maple; the Bayview Secondary School Band; Santa's Elves; the Woodbridge High School Band; the Brandie Rose Dancers; the Salvation Army Band and the Progress Club Clowns.

The parade begins at Sears, winds through the Market Court, through the mall to K-Mart; and back again to the Centre

Court where Santa's throne is located.

Santa will then invite all his little friends to share their Christmas secrets.

Richmond Hill's parade is Sunday.

Big Sisters open office

Big Sisters of York have officially opened an office in Newmarket and already they are screening applications for 25 Big Sisters.

Highway 404

Paving contract is let

The contract has been let to continue paving Highway 404 north of Highway 7, but don't hold your breath.

Paving work will only begin next May, and won't be finished until early fall, 1981.

The contract calls for granular base and hot mix paving from just south of Highway 7 (where 404 presently ends) to a spot 7.8 miles north, around the Gormley Sideroad.

The contract was awarded to a Brampton firm at a cost of more than $5 million. Transportation and Communications Minister James Snow made the announcement earlier this week.

Civic Corner

The following meetings of Civic interest have been scheduled for the next two weeks:
