

'Ridges Atoms lose, win

The Oak Ridges OMHA Atoms rebounded from an 8-2 defeat at the hands of Oro to down Schomberg 5-1 in minor hockey action last week.

Oak Ridges, sponsored by Montego Forest Products, stayed even with Oro for half of the game before a series of breakaways did them in. Grant O'Meara scored both Oak Ridges goals with one assisted by Melvin Vanhorn. David Gillespie and Cory Andrews had seven of Oro's goals.

Saturday saw the Kings recover some lost prestige in Schomberg. Schomberg opened the scoring in the second but Shawn Mieske and Steve Robinson got Oak Ridges going with unassisted goals on full-length rushes up the ice.

Then it was Jason Cairns scoring on a fine set-up from O'Meara. Gino Rulli got another goal on a goalmouth scramble from Mieske; and Cairns scored again late in the third period.

Danny Aldworth had a strong game in goal for the Kings keeping his team in the running in the early going.

The Kings have games coming up this week against Tottenham and King with the latter game next Sunday.

BANTAMS
The Oak Ridges Allan's Shell won two games and lost one. They defeated Sutton 5-1, lost 2-1 to Tottenham and walloped Schomberg 5-0.

Kevin Glover was a two-goal man for The Ridges against Sutton with singles to Kari Leivo, Robert Muzzin, and Karl Koteff. Assists Frank Rossi, Neal Wilson, two, Jeff Mitchell, Randy Winters, and Leivo.

Randy Winters got the only goal against Tottenham from Leivo.

Robert Sanders and Frank Rossi were two-goal men against Schomberg with John Lalonde getting the other one. Assists to Lalonde, two, Rossi, two, Mark Millard, and George Margerum.

MIDGET

Bob Price of Thornhill checks out his Kawasaki 1,000 racing bike prior to winning the North American Challenge Series recently at Summit Point, West Virginia. He came up with a flat tire, blew his motor, but still won the series by a point. His opponent failed to show. Talk about turning bad luck into good luck? (Liberal photo by Bruce Hogg).

Hill Martial Arts members win gold

Two members of the Richmond Hill Korean Martial Arts Academy won gold medals recently at the Second Canadian Tae-Kwondo championships held at York University.

Graham Engel won first place in the junior lightweight division and Carol Carter took a first in the girls Peewee heavyweight division.

Other Richmond Hill competitors did well in the category won by Engel. Finishing second was Keith Persaud, and third, Tom Kirisit.

Other results saw Allan Lynden winning a bronze medal for a third place finish in the Men's Lightweight.

piling two wins, one loss and three ties to date.

They opened with a 4-2 loss to Aurora with The Hill goals going to Derek DiBattista from Russ Armstrong and Jason Hails; and Hails from DiBattista and Armstrong.

They lost the next one 2-0 to Thornhill but came on strong to achieve their first win by outscoring Orillia 5-3.

Richmond Hill goals went to Cesidio Negri from Dino Buffon; DiBattista unassisted; Armstrong from Hails and Ralph Mazza; Scott Merilees from Greg Moore; Russ Armstrong from Rob Jakma.

They then tied Orillia 3-3 with Hails scoring twice assisted on one by DiBattista. DiBattista got the other goal from Russ Armstrong.

They then edged Newmarket 4-3 with goals going to Negri from Moore; Hails from Armstrong; Merilees from Negri; and Armstrong unassisted.

Aurora downed them 8-1 with Negri getting the only goal for Richmond Hill.

The team travels to Owen Sound this weekend to compete in a one-day tournament. They also plan to play in the Silver Stick tournament in early December. The team is sponsored by Blue Jay Submarine of Richmond Hill.
