Officer commended for his efforts

A York Regional Police constable has earned a commendation for "outstanding police work" in the capture of a thief in Richmond Hill. Constable Douglas Hunt nabbed an 18-year-old Richmond Hill man who broke into Marian's Doll House on Newkirk Road last March 29. While on patrol, Constable Hunt stopped to investigate a possible break-in in progress at Marian's Doll House and noticed a red motorcycle parked outside with other vehicles.

The officer "made a mental note" of the motorcycle and its licence number before going inside to discover that a break-in had occurred. Chief Bruce Crawford said in a report. When the officer went back outside, the motorcycle was gone. A few minutes later, Constable Hunt found James Donald Fortin pushing the motorcycle along the street.

After a police investigation, the youth was charged with three counts of break, enter and theft, one count of break and enter with intent to commit theft, two charges of possession of stolen property and two drug charges.

Mr. Fortin pleaded guilty to two charges of break, enter and theft on Aug. 3 and was sentenced to two years' probation. All other charges were dropped.
