Fun basketball here

YBA Basketball — the game that attracted more than 60 youngsters in the area last season and 100,000 nationwide — will again be offered at the York Region Family YMCA in Richmond Hill.

Sign-ups are slated for this Saturday at the Y Centre on Dunlop Street in Richmond Hill from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., and at Thornhill Community Centre from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

The concept of a "fair play" basketball program in which every boy or girl plays was developed jointly by the National YMCA and the National Basketball Association.

York Region Family YMCA Physical Education Director Tony D'Agostino said that registration will be limited to 54 boys or girls in the Junior league and 36 boys or girls in the Intermediate league in Richmond Hill.

YBA players will receive their basketball patches and players handbooks, written by the NBA stars, and registration cards.

Registration fee, which includes team and individual player kits, is $30.

For further information call the York Y at 884-4811.

Dunkers in for two

The York Region Family YMCA Men's Basketball League got underway last week with two new teams joining the league increasing its number to six.

In the opening game it was the Dunkers defeating the Black Panthers 59-31 with Rob Reiners dropping 15 points and Dave Layefsky 14. Pat Burns led the losers with 10 points.

Then it was the Tugboats defeating Sun Life Raiders 54-37 with Dave Mercer leading the attack with 18 points. Bill MacLeod had 13 points for the Raiders.

In the final and most exciting game of the night the Challengers beat the Hoopers 31-28 with Peter Fiedmann hooping 14 points. Trent McCabe led the Hoopers with 11 points.

Other basketball action saw:

The Tugboats held off the Challengers to grind out a 61-56 victory with Mercer managing 20 points while Greg Peterson led a balanced Challenger attack with 14.

Then it was the Hoopers defeating the Black Panthers 39-23 in a very chippy game highlighted by a four point, 13-foul calls third quarter.

The Hoopers' Dave Free led the pack with eight points. Pat Burns paced the Panthers at 11 points.

Then it was the Dunkers despatching the Sun Life Raiders 82-48 setting a new league record for total points in a game.

Doug Hancy scored 23 points for the victors while Wayne Nauss dropped 16 points, 14 in the second half, to lead the Raiders.

Legion Midgets win

The Richmond Hill Legion Midgets added another win to their unbeaten league record last week blanking Orillia Midgets 4-0 at the local arena.

The game was scoreless going into the third period as Richmond Hill and Orillia were unable to mount a sustained offensive.

Richmond Hill finally got going in the third period crowding Orillia into its own end and opening the scoring on a goal by Andrew Don from Pat Lawlor and Dave Leuschner.

That started it off and Ken Jensen made it 2-0 on an unassisted effort. Then it was Mike Hegenauer finding the mark from Warren Nye. Leuschner finished off the scoring from Lawlor and Andy Don.

Hill goalie Steve Harris stopped 26 Orillia shots to come up with his second shutout of the year. He has had only one goal scored against him in his last three games.

The Legion Midgets are at home Sunday at Thornhill in a 1.15 game.
