

Hill Mixed Bonspiel big, big success

By JACK RICKABY
A new event was added to the calendar of the Richmond Hill Curling Club this season.

November 17 which saw the rink of Michael Brooks, from Royal Canadian Curling Club, winning the first draw and the Victoria & Grey Metro Trust trophy. A very close second was the Richmond Hill rink of Bill MacLeod, his wife, Jean, and Pauline and John Anderson.

Third place in the first draw was won by Leaside's Ken Kozlik's rink and the high one-game winner was Jack Carmichael and his rink from Thornhill.

The second draw and the Gerling Global Life Insurance trophy was captured by Gerry Morlock of Richmond Hill with his wife, Gina, and Peter and Gladys Loneragan. Runners-up were the Jack Beardall rink from Humber Highland.

Richmond Hill rinks dominated the balance of the second draw. Bill Rice, with his wife, Marie, and Glenda and Lyle Urquhart finished in third place, and Len Lee with his wife, Mary Ellen and two former club members, Marg and Bruce Shaw, took the high single game.

Three out of four isn't bad although it did not enhance the local club's hospitality toward visiting curlers. However, this situation was rectified at the dinner and dance which followed the curling activity.

The Legion is at home to Bolton at the Richmond Hill Arena this Sunday at 1:15 p.m., and Barrie the following Monday at 9 p.m.

responsible for the spiel arrangements were Jack and Berte Vernon, Lyman and Irma Ferris, Jack and Bernadette Hale and Alex and Clare Wood. While there was a lot of work involved, the end result was well worthwhile.

The Club appreciates the support of the sponsors, Victoria & Grey Trust and Gerling Global Life Insurance Company and hopes this will become an annual affair in the curling activities of the Richmond Hill Club.

The Monday night team curling is close to the end of the first series. In Group A, Walt Hamilton's rink and Barry Wilson's rink both have perfect records. These two meet each other on the final night. This should be a great game. Maybe the club should sell tickets. In Group "B", Harold Louden's rink has a perfect record and in Group "C" Glenn Charge's foursome is in the same position.

The Thursday Club curling finds Dave Pulchinski and Len Lee consistent winners. Walt Hamilton and Mike Olyneec have only a tie each to mar perfection.

Suspensions hit Midgets

The suspension-depleted Richmond Hill Legion Midgets still came up with a 3-0 win Sunday against Thornhill after a penalty-marred 4-3 loss to Barrie Tuesday night of last week.

Richmond Hill was missing three players due to suspensions emanating from that Barrie game which saw them saddled with 64 minutes in misconducts and playing 33 minutes of the 60-minute game short two players due to penalties.

Receiving the thumb for vocally remonstrating with the game officials were Richmond Hill's Dave Carmichael, Andrew Don, and J. P. Farrell.

"I thought the ref was a little hard on us," was the somewhat edgy statement of Legion coach Bruce Richter.

Despite the continuous parade of penalties the Legion team actually scored all three of their goals while playing not one man short but two.

"All of our goals were short-handed ones," said Richter. "They couldn't have been any other way."

Most of the scoring took place in the second period with Barrie managing three goals to The Hill's one. Scoring for Richmond Hill in that second period was Don from Ken Jensen and Farrell; and Mike Hegenauer from Farrell. Barrie took a 4-2 lead in the third period with Richmond Hill's Paul Beckwith getting one back from Farrell.

The Legion team came up with a solid defensive performance against Thornhill with goalie Steve Harris picking up another shutout. He's only given up one goal in the last four games.

Richmond Hill goals were by Rob Cashin with two and Paul Beckwith with one.

The Legion is at home to Bolton at the Richmond Hill Arena this Sunday at 1:15 p.m., and Barrie the following Monday at 9 p.m.

Firefighters win

The Richmond Hill Mutual Life Firefighters came up with their first win in five games last week when they defeated Mississauga 5-2.

Bill Dargavel got the only goal of the first two periods when he took a pass from Gerry Caume and Terry Legge and fired the puck high into the net. David Sephton scored the second goal one minute and 30 seconds into the third period from Steve Pidgen and Pat Goods.

Gerry Caume scored the goal which proved to be the winner at the 14:20 mark of the third period. He stole the puck off a defenceman and skated in alone to score.

Blair Robson lost his bid for a shutout with four minutes left in the game. Two minutes later it was Steve Pidgen scoring again from Bill Wilson and Terry Haviland.

The ensuing faceoff saw Mississauga taking the puck down the ice and scoring on the second rebound. Terry Haviland then rounded out the scoring for Richmond Hill with the Mississauga goalie out of the net in favor of a sixth attacker.

Richmond Hill's next home game is December 5 at 10:45 a.m. when they take on Niagara Falls.

Hill Piranhas hungry

The Richmond Hill Aquatic Club held its second pennant meet of the season Sunday with the local Piranhas Club doing very well in the long meet which combined many swimmers and many 200 metre distances.

Doug Keating won certificates in the 50 metre breast, 50 metre back, and the 100 I.M.

Brian Keating and Craig Fenn won certificates in the 50 back and the 100 I.M., and Shawn Thorimbert won certificates in the 50 back and the 50 free.

Other certificate winners in the 50 back were Jay Fleming and Mark Klein; in the 100 I.M., Huw Andrew, Cathy Brett, Andy Rojas and Lisa Fenn. These swimmers will now compete in the same events at Level 2.

Raymond Hubrick was first in the 100 I.M., Mark Klein, second, and Hubrick fourth in the 50 free. Cindy Bott was first in the 50 back and Evelyn Bogie second. Kelly Bell was fifth.

Amber Ezechiels was fifth and Anne Parnis sixth in the Level 2, 200 breast. At Level 3, Janet Davidson was fourth and Tim Andrew fifth in the 200 free. Andrew was sixth in the 200 breast.

At Level 4, Stephen Davey was first in both the 200 free and the 200 breast, Doug Clarke was second in the 200 free, fifth in the 200 breast, and Arthur Diamond was sixth in the 200 breast.

Minor bantams split

The Richmond Hill Minor Bantams split games recently downing Bolton 6-4 after losing a tough 3-2 game to Aurora.

That Aurora game saw Richmond Hill jumping into a 2-0 lead on goals by Dave Abernethy from Kevin McInnis and James Barry; and one by Paul Joslin.

The third period saw Aurora storming back to score three unanswered goals, the last one with only 34 seconds remaining, to win the game. Richmond Hill goalie Bill Keates faced 35 shots and played excellently in the net.

Richmond Hill's line of Ryan, Barry and Boyle, the tiniest line in the league, accounted for four of the six goals against Bolton for a total of 12 points.

Kevin Ryan had a five-point evening scoring a goal and adding four assists. James Barry had two goals and captain Scott Steckley also had two. Boyle scored the sixth goal and assisted on two others.

Also drawing assists were Gallagher, Steve Cebello, three, and Scott Russell.

The minor bantams have been receiving excellent goal tending from Bill Keates and Rasheed Saleuddin, each of whom have shared duties equally. Both goalies have allowed 19 goals each in the six games they have played.

Marway Farms win

The Richmond Hill Marway Farms Minor Midgets picked up a couple of wins defeating Orillia 5-1 in a chippy, penalty-strewn game and then downing Bolton 8-4.

In the game against Bolton the Marway team scored five goals in the first period to Bolton's one.

It was Mark Stevens from Walter Harapiak; Ben Carbone from Barry Munro and Al Evelyn;

Bob Hay from Mark Ellison; Mark Stevens from Steve Rumble and goalie Ron Laird; Ellison from Harapiak.

Bolton scored twice in the second to make it 5-3 but Marway pumped in three more to ensure its victory. Scoring was handled by James Kennedy unassisted; Al Evelyn from Carbone and Carl Boyle; and Mark Joslin from Mark Ellison and Bob Hay.
