

CANTIBLE CHORALE

Choir having successful season

December will mark the end of another successful year for the Cantabile Chorale of Thornhill.

During the past spring, the group performed in Richmond Hill, Aurora and Thornhill.

The Spring Concert in Richmond Hill featured Eileen Bordessa, violin; Gordon Fleming, organ — Gwen Duchesne, soprano; Suzanna Remy, harpist.

The Thornhill Concert, sponsored by the ladies auxiliary of the Heintzman House, provided the group with an opportunity to perform in the newly refurbished House.

After much planning and organization throughout the summer, the choir started in September with a tour to Dunnville and Simcoe where they sang for local sponsoring groups.

On October 21, the Cantabile Chorale performed for the Thornhill Baptist Church in a fund-raising capacity.

In December, the schedule is no less demanding.

The Cantabile Chorale has been invited to do a "Cantata Reading" at Little Trinity Church. That will take place December 2 at 2:15 p.m.

That evening the choir will perform at Ontario Place, Theatre-II as part of their new "winter program".

On December 3, the choir will be closer to home.

Their annual Christmas Concert "A Gift To You" will be presented at Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Brooke Street, Thornhill at 8 p.m.

Early in 1980, the choir is performing in Port Hope as part of their music club series. In April, the Chorale will be in Gravenhurst at the Little Opera House.

Future engagements are planned in Aurora and Thornhill.

The Chorale is conducted by Robert Richardson, Master Teacher of Music for the York County Board of Education, organist of Oriole-York Mills United Church and Chairman of the Ontario Youth Choir, 1980.
