

Marylake perfect location for Symphony concerts

The majestic Marylake Shrine with its excellent acoustics is the perfect location for York Symphony Orchestra's second pair of concerts December 7 and 8 at 8.30 p.m.

Guest soloist John Tuttle, a virtuoso organist, will play Poulenc's powerful Organ Concerto on the shrine's unique pipe organ.

Faure's Requiem, a musical mass in seven parts, will feature the strong voices of the York Choral Society with soloists Corinne Ayers, Soprano; and Scot Denton, Baritone.

Tchaikovsky's Swan Lake and a medley of Christmas Carols will complete the program.

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the organist announced in the group's subscription brochure was unable to fulfill the commitment.

However, John Tuttle, one of Canada's finest organists, has agreed to participate for the events.

Mr. Tuttle is the organist at the University of Toronto and Music Director at St. Paul's Anglican Church in Toronto.

His talented hands will exploit the beautiful resonance of the shrine's pipe organ, a composite of two organs donated from the Eaton estate in King and the Seagram mansion in Rosedale.

Clifford Poole directs the York Choral Society as well as the orchestra.

During its three-year existence, the Choral Society has achieved remarkable success.

At last year's Christmas concert, the musical partnership of the two groups thrilled capacity audiences with a highly praised performance.

Marylake Shrine is one mile north of King City on Keele Street.

Tickets are $4.50 for adults and $2.50 for students and senior citizens, and are available at Cosmo Music, Richmond Hill; Music Shoppe, Thornhill; Crafts of the Pioneer, Aurora; and Budd's Music Store, Newmarket.
