

Realty Bantams lose 2 games

Thornhill's R.I.C. Realty Minor Bantam II's lost two tough hockey games last week by 5-2 to Barrie and 3-2 to Unionville.

Thornhill led in both games until the midway point and were tied at another juncture late in the game before giving up the fatal goals.

Chris McLennan shot the R.I.C.'s into an early lead only to have Barrie tie the game on a power play effort. Paul Webber then fired Thornhill into the lead again after taking a pass from Steve Redding.

Barrie then tied the game once more on another power play near the end of the second period. Then came some costly Thornhill penalties and Barrie rapped in three goals late in the final period to win the game.

In Unionville those who made it through the snowstorm played a fine game. The players were forced to use Unionville's sweaters because manager Tony Paul was snowbound with Thornhill's own sweaters.

Unionville took a 1-0 lead in the second period but Thornhill came back with two to take the lead. It was John Powell scoring from behind the net and Larry McLinden fired a high hard one that deflected into the net off a Unionville defender. Ted Stephenson and Ken Steinberg received assists on the play.

Thornhill pressed hard for a third goal missing several good chances when Unionville broke away on what appeared to be an offside play to tie the score.

There were just four minutes remaining to play when a Thornhill penalty again proved costly as Unionville scored the winner.

Thornhill also lost a 3-0 exhibition game to Markham's Bantam II team earlier in the week.

Bill Keates just misses shutout

Bill Keates missed his first shutout of the year by 16 seconds as the Tournaments Inc. Minor Bantams edged Aurora 2-1 in a very exciting game last Thursday night in Richmond Hill.

The minor bantams played their best game of the year and handed the flashy Aurora team its second loss of the season.

Kevin Ryan opened the scoring from James Barry with Gino Digioacchino getting the winning goal on a pass from James Barry. It was defenceman's Digioacchino's first goal of the season and it couldn't have come at a better time.

In the two exhibition games played by the minor bantams this last week they lost 3-0 to Milton and 7-1 to Bramalea. The lone Richmond Hill goal was scored by Kevin Ryan from James Barry.

Minor Peewees tie

The Thornhill Minor Peeewe II's missed an opportunity to forge into first place on the weekend as they had to settle for two tie games with Barrie and Unionville.

They tied Barrie 0-0 and Unionville 2-2. The results left them tied for third place with Sharon and Unionville holding down first place.

Friday's scoreless tie with Barrie saw both teams playing rather sloppy hockey and only some excellent goaltending from Thornhill's Mitchell Avenus and Barrie's Mike Curran prevented the game from being a high-scoring affair. Avenus was particularly brilliant.

Thornhill was never behind in Saturday night's game in Unionville but had to settle for a tie when Unionville's Billy Powers scored with fewer than three minutes to go.

The Thornhill team played much stronger in this one than in the previous game against Barrie.

It was Robert Puk opening the scoring on a beautiful unassisted goal and John Gilbert finishing off another pretty play with assists going to Kevin Rottmund and Richard Krutzler. Goalie Avenus played another strong game for Thornhill as did John Gilbert and Mike Steinberg.

It was the fourth tie in five meetings with Unionville.

Hill Minor Atoms lose 4-3, win by 5-4

The Richmond Hill Minor Atoms lost a close 4-3 game to Newmarket and then bounced back to defeat Thornhill 5-4.

Against Newmarket the Hill boys fell behind 4-1 before collecting their shooting sticks and banging in two goals to make it close.

Richmond Hill built up a four-goal lead against Thornhill but still had to get one more to win the game.

Marway wins

Richmond Hill Marway Farms Minor Midgets nipped Newmarket 4-3 Sunday at Richmond Hill in a follow-up to a 5-5 tie with Thornhill Friday night.

Danny Paterson scored twice for the Hill with Dean Artenosi gbetting one. Pino Decina, Jon Lounds and Chris Rich each earned an assist.

Decina showed the way with three goals with Paterson and Paul Black also scoring. Jay Tennant, Paterson and Decina each had an assist.

The Newmarket game saw Richmond Hill outscore the visitors 2-1 in the first period with Jim Flett pulling the trigger from Duane Aubie and James Kennedy; and Mark Stevens from Duane Aubie.

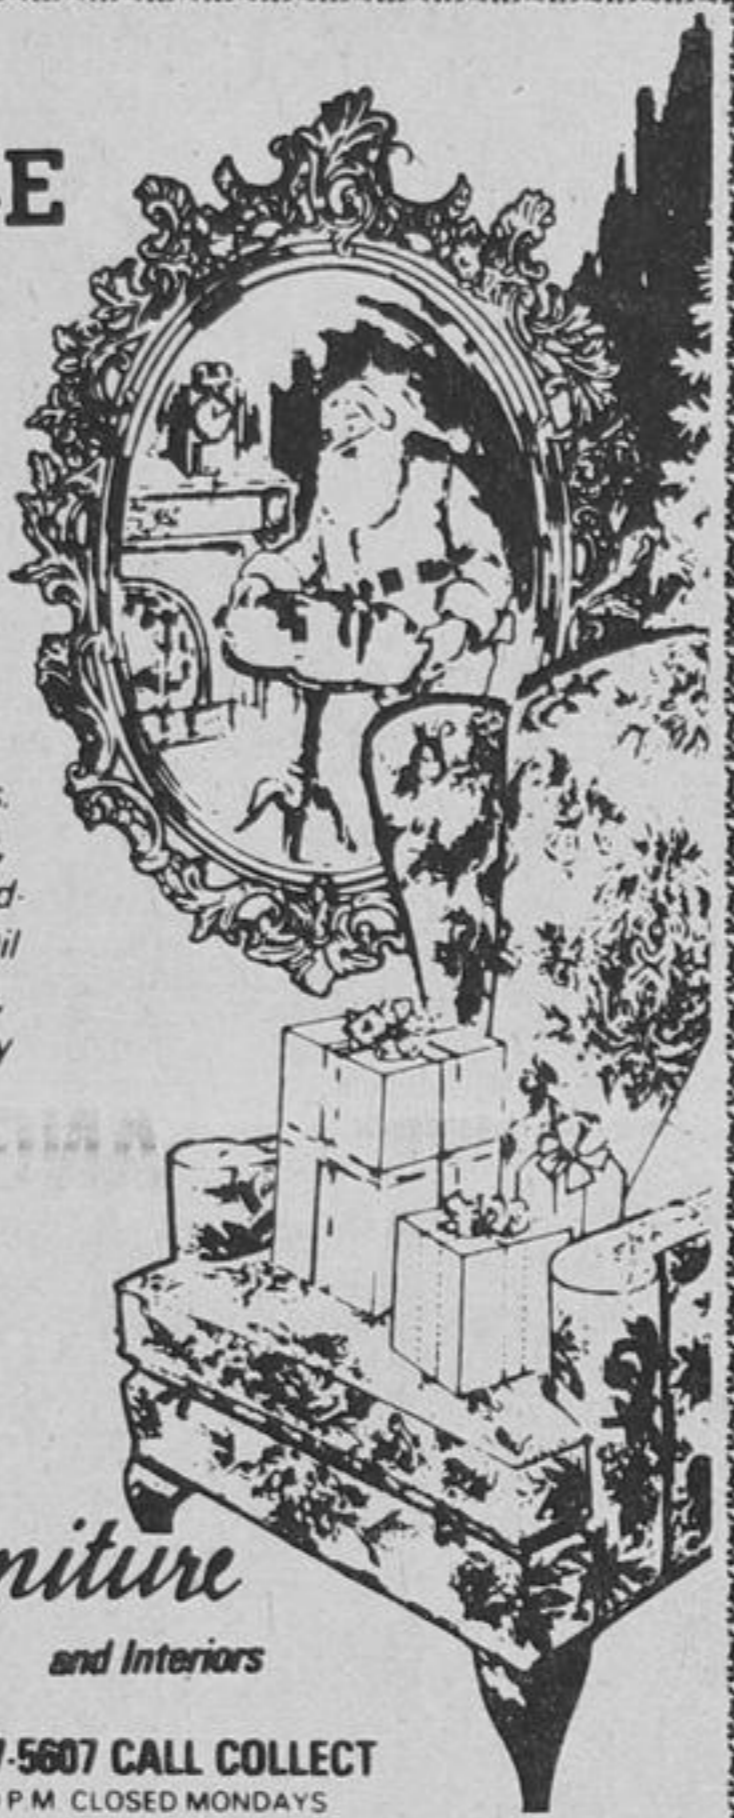

Newmarket came back strong with two straight goals in the second period to lead 3-2 but Richmond Hill got th next two with Don Head scoring from Ben Carbone and then Mark Ellison winning it in the third period from Bob Hay.

Mark Joslin fired in two goals against Thornhill with the others going to Eddie Main from Head; and Carl Boyle from Al Evelyn and Mark Joslin; and Barry Munro with the winner from James Kennedy and Walter Harapiak.

Christmas light displays can't have to be extravagant to be effective. Homes, offices and factories with too many lights can turn a display of goodwill into something else... So keep it simple and, of course, wait until after 7 o'clock to switch the lights on.
