Hill Firefighters wallop North York

The Richmond Hill Firefighters finally got their season record up to 500 (four wins, four losses, two ties) with a one-sided 8-2 victory over North York's Number 2 team.
The way they started was not encouraging as they allowed North York to score after only 16 seconds of play. This seemed to wake the local boys up and before the period ended they were leading by 4-1.

Jim Lawson got the first goal from Barry Pollard. David Sephton got number two from Larry Shier and Steve Pidgeon.
Sephton got the third goal from Lawson and also the fourth from Blair Robson and Gary Vass.
The onslaught continued in the second period with Gerry Caume scoring from Pidgeon and Bond. Then it was Lawson from Caume and Pidgeon; and Pidgeon from Barry Pollard before North York got its second goal.

In the third period it was, Sephton from Lawson and Shier.
The two points move Richmond Hill into third place in the 'B' section of the league and seventh place overall in the 15-team league.
