The gramophone mentioned in last week's Leader was missed from its place Saturday evening and the owner would like to know who the miscreants were and where the instrument was taken.

Mr. Russell Sparks has the latest in overalls. Judging by the pattern they should be cool and comfortable in hot weather.

(From another correspondent.)

Perhaps the happiest person in this village, is our genial friend, Mr. Archie McVeigh, who is one of the gallants of this place. As it is well known that he often takes the place of the liveryman and has been in the right place on stormy days and times when the roads were bad, it was deemed proper by the favored that he should be rewarded for his services. On Tuesday evening a surprise party claimed his attention for a few hours during which he was presented with a handsome alarm clock Mr. McVeigh was taken by surprise but expressed his appreciation and said that his driver was good for a few years more, though he stopped quickly sometimes. The evening was spent in playing games and singing songs. Archie says he has the most wonderful clock in the village for he took it up stairs that night and it ran down.

A few weeks ago a warning was printed in the Leader to strangers hiring livery horses before making engagements but one of our young men, who drives a small jet steed has proven to be longer in the head.
His young gallant made a habit of passing the "Windsor" quite frequently and each time he could not refrain from looking towards the kitchen. Recently he mustered courage to stop though what he said is not known but on Monday he drove to Sarsfield and since then he feels as though spring not only broke the bonds of winter but also started a glow of warmth in his heart.

James Simpson Esq.
Ex Reeve Tp. of Osgoode, Metcalle, Ont.

Dear Mr. Simpson,
In view of the fact that we have met on friendly terms since our recent election contest, I am very much surprised that you have thought it necessary to charge me with slander in connection with my speech on nomination day. The idea that I charged you with having sold the tolls to Mrs. Ryan for the consideration of allowing you to the eyes. By cheap glasses we do not mean cheap in price, but glasses which are fancy prices.

We use only 1st quality lenses. You know to pass up and down the road free is entirely wrong. It is a fact, as I think you yourself know, that some of those who were opposed to you were asking why it was that you had sold the tolls to Mrs. Ryan without public tender and it may be that these people were insinuating that you had received some consideration for doing so. In my nomination day speech I referred to the rumors that were going about and asked you to explain them. You did explain them and that is all that I had to say about them. I considered that what I did was proper under the circumstances and I had no desire whatever to injure your reputation in any way. If people still think there was anything in it I am personally very sorry for it, and I am quite ready to tell my friends and acquaintances that from what I have learned of the matter since I do not think that you would act dishonestly in that or any other matter. While I do not think that you have any grounds for an action of slander against me, I would think it very unfortunate that you and I should have litigation and I hope that you will see your way clear to let your action drop so that we can be as good friends in the future as we have been in the past.

You may depend upon it that if this is done I will do all I can to set you right before the people.

Yours Truly,
Thos. W. James.

Tired Out

"I was very poorly and could hardly get about the house. I was tired out all the time. Then I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it only took two bottles to make me feel perfectly well."—Mrs. N. S. Swin-ney, Princeton, Mo.

Tired when you go to bed, tired when you get up, tired all the time.
Why? Your blood is impure, that's the reason.
You are living on the border line of nerve exhaustion. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and be quickly cured.
$1.00 a bottle.
All druggists.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and we will be satisfied.
