

MOTHERS OF LITTLE ONES

No mother of young children should be without a box of Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are mother's best friend and are as good as a doctor in the house. Concerning them Mrs. F. Wurger, Ingersoll, Ont., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past eight years and would not be without them. I can highly recommend them to all mothers of young children." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WIT AND WISDOM.

The man who does things can afford to let his wife do the talking. A peck of trouble is one thing that is mighty seldom short weight. To him who does everything in its proper time one day is worth three.

There is no greater misfortune than not to be able to bear misfortune.

Some people cast their bread upon the waters, expecting it to come back toasted.

"Is he rich?" "I don't think so, but he must be." "Why?" "I heard him say the other night that he lets his wife have all the money she wants."

Flatbush—"When I came out of church on Sunday I found my horse fast asleep in the shed." Bensonhurst—"Why, he couldn't hear the sermon from there, could he?"

Proving It—"I gave you a penny yesterday to be good, and to-day you are just as bad as can be." Willie—"Yes; I'm trying to show that you got your money's worth yesterday."

Mick—"O! hear as how Murphy joined the army. How is he loikin' it?" Pat—"Loikin' it! Shure, he was niver so well off in all his life. He's got two socks the same now."

Dunkley—"You can't find a man anywhere who enjoys a good joke better than I do!" Friend—"That's so. I have heard you tell the same joke forty times, and laugh at it every time."

"Remember, Bangs, we are depending on your baby to cry lustily in the third act. Do you think he'll do his part?" Actor-Father—"He ought to. He's been rehearsing every night for months."

A church was to be renovated, and the carpenter was showing the vicar round "There seems to be a lot of dry rot in these pews," said the vicar. "That's nothing," said the carpenter, "to what there is in the pulpit."

"What is the child howling for now," asked its father from the depths of his easy-chair. "He wants his own way," snapped the mother. And with his mind on the latest war news the father replied, "Well, if it's his why don't you let him have it?"

CLEAR-HEADED

Head Bookkeeper Must Be Reliable
The chief bookkeeper in a large business house in one of the Western cities speaks of the harm tea and coffee did for him:

"My wife and I drank our first cup of Postum a little over two years ago, and we have used it ever since, to the entire exclusion of tea and coffee. It happened in this way:

"I had an attack of pneumonia, which left me with dyspepsia, or neuralgia of the stomach. My 'cup of cheer' had always been tea or coffee, but I became convinced, after a time, that they aggravated my stomach trouble. I happened to mention the matter to my grocer one day and he suggested that I give Postum a trial.

"Next day it came and we liked it so much that we will never change back; for I am a well man to-day and have used no medicine.

"My work as chief bookkeeper in our Co.'s branch house here is of a very confining nature. During my tea and coffee drinking days I was subject to nervousness and the 'blues' in addition to my sick spells. These have left me since I began using Postum and I can conscientiously recommend it to those whose work confines them to long hours of severe mental exertion."

Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 5c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

"There's a Reason" for Postum.
—sold by Grocers.

Thoughts for the Day.

Liberty means responsibility. That is why most men dread it. The situation that has not its duty, its ideal, was never yet occupied by any man.

However mean your life is meet it and live it; do not shun it and call it hard names.

If you are ever in doubt what to do it is a good rule to ask ourselves what we should wish on the morrow we had done.

Manners are the happy ways of doing things—each one a stroke of genius or of love—now repeated and hardened into usage.

Kind looks, kind words, kind acts and warm handshakes—these are a secondary means of grace when men are in trouble and fighting their unseen battles.

Die when I may, I want it said of me by those who knew me best that I always plucked a thistle and planted a flower when I thought a flower would grow.

First Long Step Towards Recovery

IS TO FIND IF YOUR SYMPTOMS ARE OF KIDNEY DISEASE.

Kent County Lady Did This—Then She Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and Was Cured.

Upper Bouctouche, Kent Co., N. B., May 31st (Special).—Miss Genevieve Bastarache, an estimable lady living near here, is telling her friends of the benefit she has received from Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I am indeed happy to be able to state that I have been cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills," Miss Bastarache says in an interview.

"I was often so feeble I could not work. My sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I had headaches and cramps in the muscles.

"I suffered from Rheumatism and Backache and was always tired and nervous.

"I was in this miserable condition when I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I had not taken two boxes till I felt better, and three boxes cured me."

Miss Bastarache made a long step towards recovery when she discovered that her symptoms were of Kidney Disease. She then had only to use the old reliable Kidney remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills, to find a cure. Are your symptoms those of Kidney Disease?

A Dunfermline Collie.

"Duke," a Scottish collie owned by Mr. H. C. Aitken, of Priory Lane, Dunfermline, had the shield and medal for dashing into the road at Dunfermline in August, 1911, and saving a child from being run over. This is quite an unusual form of canine heroism, and suggests that there is no limit to the possibilities of a dog in saving life. The child was, it seems, quite a stranger, yet "Duke" sprang into the road and snatched it from under the horse's feet. There is an instance on record of a collie dashing after a perambulator containing a baby which had "taken charge" down a very steep hill at Bristol and stopping it. Unfortunately no data has been preserved that would establish this interesting incident as an undoubted fact.

Johnny's Strategy.

Little sister had not been well and had been especially trying to small Johnny all day. Finally his patience came to an end. "Mother," he asked, "don't you want little sister to be a good wife when she grows up?" "Of course," said the mother. "Well, you make me give everything to her 'cause she's littler'n me. But you're littler'n father, and when he comes home, you say—'Here's your slippers and magazine, dear'—and before his mother could move Johnny tore his train of cars from the screaming baby. "If we don't begin to train her she'll be a terrible wife," he said as he slammed the door.

Never Went Away.

Neighbor's Little Girl: "When did you get back, Mrs. Brown? Did you have a good time?"

Neighbor: "Why, I haven't been away, my dear."

"Haven't you, really? I'm sure I heard mother say you and Mr. Brown had been at loggerheads for a week."

YOUR SKIN NEEDS FOOD

Is your skin harsh and dry? Are there signs of approaching wrinkles? Are you getting worried about the possible loss of your youthful beauty? Cleopatra didn't worry about these things. You needn't if Usit is applied.

Cleopatra and the noted beauties of the East knew perfectly well that the skin requires food just as does the rest of the body. They fed their skin with a preparation of Oriental oils, the secret of which has been so jealously guarded by succeeding generations that it has only recently come to light.

Men, too, find Usit a valuable friend. An occasional application to the face not only feeds the skin and keeps it in the healthiest condition, but it leaves the face much easier to shave. Experience alone proves how much easier.

Usit is the trade mark name by which this preparation is known and sold by all druggists, wholesale and retail. Usit Mfg. Co., Ltd., 476 Roncesvalles Ave., Toronto, Ont.

His Reply.

A Londoner was showing some country relatives the sights of London recently, and was pointing out a magnificent old residence built years ago by a famous and rather unscrupulous lawyer of his time. "And," the Londoner was asked, "was he able to build a house like that by his practice?" "Yes," was the reply, "by his practice and his practices."

Art.

To say an old thing in an old way is a platitude. To say an old thing in a new way is wit. To say a new thing in an old way is a blunder. To say a new thing in a new way is art.

Good Training.

"Yes," said the manager, "we want a man for our information bureau, but he must be a man who can answer all sorts of questions and not lose his head."

"That's me exactly," said the applicant with enthusiasm. "I'm the father of eight children."

Promises are worse than eggs—you can't keep them after they are broken.

ZAM-BUK AND OUTDOOR LIFE.

Every tennis or ball player, every swimmer, every canoeist, every man or woman who loves outdoor life and exercise, should keep a box of Zam-Buk handy.

Zam-Buk is a purely herbal preparation, which, as soon as applied to cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, blisters, etc., sets up highly beneficial operations. First, its antiseptic properties render the wound free from all danger from blood poisoning. Next, its soothing properties relieve and ease the pain. Then its rich, herbal balms penetrate the tissue, and set up the wonderful process of healing. Barbed wire scratches, insect stings, skin diseases, such as eczema, heat rashes, ringworm, babies' heat sores, chafed places, sore feet—are all quickly cured by Zam-Buk. It also eases and cures piles. All druggists and stores. Use Zam-Buk Soap also; 25c. per tablet.

Story Against Himself.

The Duke of Connaught tells a good story against himself. Some years ago, when he was raised to the position of Lieutenant-Colonel of the 1st Rifle Brigade, the late Queen Victoria commanded that he should only be saluted as a regimental officer, and not as a member of the Royal Family. On one occasion, however, an Irish sentry, seeing the Duke and Duchess approaching, turned out the guard and gave the Royal salute. The Duke was much annoyed, and proceeded to give the sergeant in charge a piece of his mind. But the quick-witted Irishman was equal to the occasion. "The guard, sorr," he said, in his richest brogue, "is for Her Royal Highness, who, as a member of the Royal Family, is entitled to it!" After that the Duke could say nothing.
