Have Your town On The Map Representations are being made by Automobile Associations, that it would be a convenience to visitors and strangers if the name of the town or village could be displayed over the post office, it is stated by the association that at many points in the United States the name of the place is prominently displayed at both ends of the town or village—that it is becoming a usual practice.

The Postmaster should communicate with the local authorities on the subject, if the name of the place is not already advertised on his office or very prominently at other points, as it may be that if the town or village is incorporated the authorities would naturally be ready and willing to assist in advertising the name of the place if the matter were brought to their attention.

Winter Reading

Books of natural reading history make the most cheerful winter reading.
I read in Audubon with a thrill of delight, when the snow covers the ground; of the magnolia, and the Florida keys, and their warm sea-breezes; of the fence rail and the cotton tree, and the migrations of the rice-bird; of the breaking up of winter in Labrador, and the melting of the snow on the forks of the Missouri.—Thoteau.

It was a week before little Willie's birthday, and he was on his knees at his bedside petitioning Providence for presents in a loud voice.
"Please send me," he shouted, "a bicycle, a tool chest, a—"
"What are you praying so loud for?"
asked his little brother.
"God a'nt deaf,"
"I know he aint," said little Willie, winking toward the next room "Pa'ndma is."
