Does Cream

Shipping Pay

Comparison for the month of April

CHEESE FACTORY

Lbs. Milk	1000
Test	3.2
Lbs. Fat	32
Proceeds at 14 1-2c.	12.06
Making at 2 1/2c.	2.08
Net Proceeds	9.98

CREAM

Lbs. Milk	1000
Test	3.2
Lbs. Fat	32
Proceeds at 38c.	12.16
Net Proceeds	22.16

The above demonstrates clearly the difference in favor of shipping cream to us for the month of April.

In addition you have the skim milk instead of whey for feeding.

We feel confident this variation will continue during May, and we guarantee our shippers every attention during the year.

Apply for shipping cans at once.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS

VARs

Andy Rickerd is having his house repainted.

Ben Dansereau is patronizing the new store of late.

Miss Hortense Parent is visiting friends in Vars.

A party was held on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. Alex. Stewart in honor of Miss Annie Brunton, who soon intends going to the U.S.A. There were nine couples present and the evening was spent very enjoyably by all, playing games, etc. After lunch Mr. Geo. Muggleton made an address of thanks to Mr. Stewart and Miss Brunton for their entertainment, and all joined hands in a circle, inside of which stood Miss Brunton, and sang 'He's a Jolly Goop Fellow.' Miss Jackson then played the National Anthem and all dispersed to their homes, tired but happy over their night's enjoyment.

The U. F. O. intend holding an up-to-date picnic on the County Farm, Bearbrook, on June 10. They are having a race track built, on which will be held all kinds of horse racing. Come and see the greatest event in Bearbrook's history.

Miss Myrtle Tanner is now residing on Maple Avenue.

Mrs. Geo. Gauley held a sale of flowers on Saturday evening, June 3rd, which was very successful. The proceeds were in favor of the Women's Missionary Society.

Don't forget the play, "Cranberry Corners," by St. Andrew's Amateur Dramatic Club in Harmony Hall, on Friday, June 9, also the U.F.O. picnic, June 10, at Bearbrook.

(By another correspondent)

(Too late for last week)

We hear Howard James is taking a great interest in the Stuart & Carkner Co., but we surmise the chief interest is in Mr. Carkner's house.

Albert Newton and Albert Tanner spent an enjoyable evening at Navan on Saturday. They claim there are some nifty young ladies around that burg.

Some people are born horsemen, but we cannot call Trevor Armstrong one, as he let the horse throw the occupants out of the buggy and run home. He claims the damages are covered by insurance. It requires practice to drive with one hand.

Wm. Kennedy is doing a rushing business as agent for Fords. Who woulda'townia "Tin Lizzie."

Mary Ford was doing a wonderful business on Saturday night.

Tippins Orchestra are playing for a dance in Navan on Friday, June 2nd. The whole cry around Vars is "Hurrah for Navan." Some one hold Newton and Tanner.

The streets of Vars city were crowded on Saturday evening. The street cars were held for two hours at Main street and Maple avenue.

Ralph Sparks spent last Sunday evening in Vars for a change. What's the matter Ralph?

Everyone thought Wm. Devine would remain a bachelor, but by the look of things he may surprise us.

P. Murphy and A. Dansereau of the Royal Bank staff, spent an enjoyable evening recently at the home of our new merchant.

MARVELVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Brisbois and family, of Vernon, visited friends here on Sunday.

The editor of the Leader spent Sunday with John Hume.

The junior football team commenced practice on Tuesday evening.

A number of our young people attended the dance at Metcalfe on the 2nd. All report a very good time.

Cecil Acres and Asa Sullivan accompanied by two of our popular young ladies, were motoring on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed, Cowan and son, Harold spent Sunday at the latter's parental home here.

Eber Robinson reports the roads very rough to Morewood.

All things come to those who wait, but the man who doesn't advertise waits longer.

One day an American was touring through the North of Scotland and seeing an old worthy digging his allotment stopped to have a chat with him. "That's a fine allotment," said the Yank.

Scottie—"Ay mon, no bad."

Yank—"Fine allotments in America. Just for instance, last year I planted a tiny little turnip seed, and a turnip the size of an observation balloon came up."

Scottie—"Mon, that's na thing last season I planted a cat in thie yin, and a sanitary inspector came up."

The faithful dog of Covell Rankin, which came, wet and whining, the door of his home was the only survivor of a fishing party that went out from Port Dover. Archie Edmonds and Covell Rankin were drowned.
