NORTH RUSSELL

A banquet was held on Monday, Nov. 5th, under the auspices of L.O.L. No. 268, which was largely attended by members and their wives.

L.O.L. 268, O.Y.B. 39 and L.T. B. 389 attended Divine Service on Sunday afternoon in North Russell church.

Miss Lillian Stanley, of Metcalfe, is spending a few days with her uncle, Mr. Melvin Stanley.

Miss Lulu Meharey and Mrs. Geo. Moffatt spent the week-end with the former's aunt, Mrs. G. Bush, of Newington.

Mr. Summers, of Ottawa, spent a couple of days last week at Edwin Hamilton's.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Hugh Ross and Miss Jeacle motored to North Osgoode Sunday afternoon.

Kenneth, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Paul, who cut his hand so badly that he had to be taken to the hospital on Friday is improving.

FAIRBANKS

Mr. Ben Wade, of Marvelville, is plowing for Mr. T. Wade.

Mrs. Jes. Hay spent Friday evening with Mrs. Harry Carscadden.

Mr. Fred Cousineau, of U.S.A. is visiting at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Carscadden and son, Willis, spent Saturday in Ottawa.

K. Hay helped Mr. C. Loucks with his turnips Saturday.

Mr. J. Eastman Jr. has rented Mr. J. A. Carscadden's farm.

Mr. D. Kiukaid, of Russell, is visiting with Mrs. Robt. Wade.

MARVELVILLE

Some persons with a perverted sense of humor put some signs on several of our prominent business places one evening recently. As these so-called decorations are offensive, notice is hereby given that unless they are removed at once serious consequences may result.

VARS

The Vars Glee Club are putting on the play "Farm Folks", on Friday evening, Nov. 23rd. Fuller particulars next week.
