St. Andrew's Church Sunday School will hold their Christmas entertainment on Tuesday evening, December 23rd.

We have just secured the agency for a complete line of Christmas cards of English make. Their designs are exclusive and in order to have your name and address printed before Xmas you should call and see them. The prices are right.

The annual Bazaar and chicken dinner of the Ladies Guild of St. Mary's church, which was held in the Forester's Hall on Saturday afternoon and evening was quite successful.

Miss Margeret Carson has been engaged as teacher in the Clayton Public School and will start her duties after the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. W. W. Kinkade, of Philadelphia returned to her home on Saturday, after spending a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Dalgleish.

Elwood Cochrane exhibited some pure bred Shropshire lambs at the Ottawa Winter Fair and secured a fair share of prizes. Good boy, Elwood.

In connection with the radio-antennae tests last week several local instruments were successful in raising British and Continental stations. Mr. J. D. Crear and Mr. T. C. Switzer got several British stations.

If success depends upon hard work, a good many of us know we will never be successful.

It is a good thing Providence cleared the sidewalks as snow shovels were a scant quantity in a good many quarters.

Mr. Geo. Sutherland spent Tuesday in Ottawa and adjacent points.

Having sold his farm, Mr. John Anderson, who lives on the old Gillissie place in the village of Kenmore, will sell his farm stock and implements by public auction on Monday, Dec. 22nd, at 12 o'clock sharp. Thos. Irving, auctioneer.

We have given fair notice, and have already turned over a large number of past due accounts to a collection agency. On subscriptions alone we have nearly 1000 years in arrears. We believe they will mean to pay, but we might starve to death.

Mr. Charles Hanson will have his auction sale of farm stock and implements on the Vines Back farm, base line. To be up at Clayton on Friday, Dec. 19th, at 10 o'clock sharp. John James, auctioneer.

Having sold his farm, Mr. S. Latimer, of Waterloo, will offer for sale by public auction a good stock of horses, cows, pigs, poultry, feed, farm machinery, and household goods on Saturday, Dec. 20th at 1 o'clock p.m. James P. Dowse, auctioneer.
